Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan, 2003 In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley The Sacred Image East and West Robert G. Ousterhout, Leslie Brubaker, 1995 The essays cover a full range of images including panel paintings altarpieces manuscripts and wall paintings and a rich variety of socioreligious settings private monastic and imperial Sacred Images and Sacred Power in Byzantium Gary Vikan, 2024-10-28 In these studies Gary Vikan has opened new perspectives on the daily life and material culture of Late Antiquity more specifically on icons and relics and on objects revealing of the world of pilgrimage the early cult of saints and marriage He contextualizes these familiar categories of object in the patterns of belief and ritual extracted from contemporary texts and the objects themselves in order to understand their meaning within the everyday lives of those by whom and for whom they were made The studies give a nuanced delineation of the inherently ambiguous boundary between conventional religion and magic noting repeatedly those instances wherein the two are invoked in the same breath and by way of the same art object toward the same end From this historically constructed matrix of art belief and ritual the author derives an anthropologically defined paradigm of charisma and pilgrimage applied in one essay as an intriguing parallel to deconstructing the world of a contemporary secular saint Elvis Presley Discourse on Sacred and Profane Images Gabriele Paleotti, 2012 In the wake of the Counter Reformation Cardinal Gabriele Paleotti the archbishop of Bologna wrote a remarkable treatise on art during a time when the Church feared rampant abuse in the arts Translated into English here for the first time Paleotti's Discourse on Sacred and Profane Images argues that art should address a broad audience and explains the painter's responsibility to his spectators The Discourse is introduced by historian Paolo Prodi who explains how even if the archbishop did not succeed in reforming the arts Paleotti's treatise constituted one last synthesis of art as a reading of creation and salvation history and sacred art as a vehicle of devotion Sacred Images Leslie G. ### Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology

William C. Hackett, 2023-12-28 William C Hackett provides a renewed reading of Christian theology by evaluating the role of anthropomorphism in shaping negative theology Through this theological history he addresses the fear of anthropomorphism that prompted early philosophers and theologians to adopt abstract understandings of God Hackett charts the wide ranging importance of anthropomorphism to theology through figures including Balthasar Bultmann Dionysius the Areopagite and Cyril of Alexandria He argues that anthropomorphism highlights the unique conceptual problem between divine presence and absence By exploring the turn away from practical and embodied views of God in Scripture this book focuses on anthropomorphic views of God in symbols images and narratives Emphasising these forms promotes an intellectual vision of Christianity that challenges theoretical and conceptual abstraction Anthropomorphism in Christian Theology further traces the nuances between human and angelic intellect modern philosophy and theology negative theology and the concept of transcendence

The Political Economy of Craft Production Carla M. Sinopoli, 2003-10-30 The study of specialized craft production has a long tradition in archaeological research Through analyses of material remains and the contexts of their production and use archaeologists can examine the organization of craft production and the economic and political status of craft producers This study combines archaeological and historical evidence from the author's twenty years of fieldwork at the imperial capital of Vijayanagara to explore the role and significance of craft production in the city's political economy of the fourteenth to the seventeenth century By examining a diverse range of crafts from poetry to pottery Sinopoli evaluates models of craft production and expands upon theoretical and historical understandings of empires in general and Vijayanagara in particular It is the most broad ranging study of craft production in South Asia or in any other early state empire

Hindu Iconoclasts Noel Salmond, 2006-01-01 Why Salmond asks would nineteenth century Hindus who come from an iconic religious tradition voice a kind of invective one might expect from Hebrew prophets Muslim iconoclasts or Calvinists Rammohun was a wealthy Bengali intimately associated with the British Raj and familiar with European languages religion and currents of thought Dayananda was an itinerant Gujarati ascetic who did not speak English and was not integrated into the culture of the colonizers Salmond's examination of Dayananda after Rammohun complicates the easy assumption that nineteenth century Hindu iconoclasm is simply a case of borrowing an attitude from Muslim or Protestant traditions Salmond examines the origins of these reformers' ideas by considering the process of diffusion and independent invention that is whether ideas are borrowed from other cultures or arise spontaneously and without influence from external sources Examining their writings from multiple perspectives Salmond suggests that Hindu iconoclasm was a complex movement whose attitudes may have arisen from independent invention and were then reinforced by diffusion Although idolatry became the symbolic marker of their reformist programs Rammohun s and Dayananda s agendas were broader than the elimination of image worship These Hindu reformers perceived a link between image rejection in religion and the unification and modernization of society part of a process that Max Weber called the disenchantment of the world Focusing on idolatry in nineteenth century India Hindu Iconoclasts investigates the encounter of civilizations an encounter that continues to resonate today
