Sacred Interconnections Postmodern Spirituality Political Economy And Art:

Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-01-01 This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism religion politics economics and art It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive cynical even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without The Human Difference Alan Wolfe, 1993 Jack and Annie are ready for their next fantasy adventure in the bestselling middle grade series the Magic Tree House Where did the tree house come from Before Jack and Annie can find out the mysterious tree house whisks them to the prehistoric past Now they have to figure out how to get home Can they do it before dark or will they become a dinosaur s dinner Visit the Magic Tree House website MagicTreeHouse.com From the Trade Paperback edition

Cultural Rights and Justice John Clammer, 2018-12-11 This book provides an innovative contribution to the emerging field of culture and development through the lens of cultural rights arguing in favour of a fruitful dialogue between human rights development studies critical cultural studies and concerns about the protection and preservation of cultural diversity It breaks with established approaches by introducing the themes of aesthetics embodiment narrative and peace studies into the field of culture and development and in doing so proposes both an expanded conception of cultural rights and a holistic vision of development that not only includes these elements in a central way but which argues that genuine sustainability must include the cultural dimension including the notion of cultural justice as recognition protection and respect extended to the many expressions of human imagination in this world

The Social Self in Zen and American Pragmatism Steve Odin, 1996-01-01 This is the first book on East West comparative thought to critically analyze the Zen Buddhist model of self in modern Japanese philosophy from the standpoint of American pragmatism

Vision and Society John Clammer, 2014-03-26 The sociology of art is now an established sub discipline of sociology But little work has been done to explore the implications not of society on art but of art on the nature and principles of sociology itself Vision and Society explores the ways in which art here mainly understood as visual art structures in fundamental ways the constitution of society the relations between societies and the ways in which society and culture should be theorized Building initially on an unfulfilled project by the French sociologist of art Nathalie Heinich to derive a sociology from art this book pushes this idea in unconventional directions Rethinking the relationships between the study of art and the study of sociology and anthropology this book explores how this rethinking might impact sociological theory in general and certain aspects of it in particular especially the study of social movements social change the urban the constitution of space and the ways in which human social relationships are mediated and expressed

United States Foreign Policy and the Prospects for Peace Education Carl Mirra, 2008-03-31 In light of the United States age of terrorism and the controversial involvement in the war in Iraq U S policies toward diplomatic peace education are coming under increasing scrutiny This book evaluates the prospects for effective U S peace education in the context of post 1945 U S foreign policy The work first documents the disparity between U S pronouncements about protecting human rights and the country s systematic erosion of those rights in the international arena Second it evaluates the challenges that the war on terrorism poses for peace education and explores the importance of international treaties in upholding security A final section explores new ways of thinking and relating that are ultimately necessary for the realization of nonviolent peacekeeping efforts Designed as a resource text for U S educators the text offers concrete proposals for addressing contentious foreign policy issues in the classroom and includes an appendix of primary documents and sample questions for easy use

Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche s three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Dancing to the Post-modern Tune Tobias O. Okoro, 2010 Religions and Discourse explores religious language in the major world faiths from various viewpoints including semiotics pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and reflects on how it is situated within wider intellectual and cultural contexts In particular a key issue is the role of figurative speech Many fascinating metaphors originate in religion e g revelation as a garment apostasy as adultery loving kindness as the circumcision of the heart

Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society Even more how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice This volume explores these issues in depth Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today's significant issues such as identity politics, dislocation, postmodernism, postcolonialism, neo empire, Asian values and constructs diasporic, transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation, reconciliation, hospitality, worldliness, solidarity and border traversing. This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies, cultural studies, ethnic studies, postmodernism, postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space. This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today. Cultures of Transition and Sustainability John Clammer, 2016-06-10. Contending that culture lies at the root of our current planetary and civilizational crisis, this book uniquely explores the nature of the specifically cultural dimensions of that crisis and how culture relates to the areas of politics, policy, economics, ecology and the whole discourse of sustainability. It debates how profoundly our world is shaped by capitalist culture, emphasizing the import of political culture and policy, social justice, leadership and community in the shaping of a new cultural sustainability. It also reintroduces questions of religion, art, citizenship and comparative culture into the sustainability debate and suggests ways in which the central issue of consumer culture can be rethought and others in which socially satisfactory transitions to a sustainable future might be achieved. Addressing the specific role of culture in our crisis and of how to build cultural resources for transition, this cutting edge text provides the reader with an introduction to the literature on culture and sustainability and both practical and theoretical tools for creating and advancing a humane and ecologically responsible future. Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought Michel Weber, 2013-04-30. Gathering 115 entries written by 101 internationally renowned experts in their fields, the Handbook of Whiteheadian Process Thought aims at canvassing the current state of knowledge in Whiteheadian scholarship and at identifying promising directions for future investigations through internal cross-elucidation and external interdisciplinary development. Two kinds of entries are weaved together in order to interpret Whitehead secundum Whitehead and to read him from the vantage point of interdisciplinary and crossdisciplinary research. The thematic entries provide i) a broad contextualisation of the issue at stake, ii) a focus on Whitehead's treatment, if any, or of a possible Whiteheadian treatment of the issue, iii) a history of relevant scholarship, iv) a personal assessment by the Author. The biographical entries provide i) a brief vita of the targeted thinker, ii) a sketch of his/her categories relevant to the Whiteheadian scholarship, iii) a personal assessment of the actual or possible Whiteheadian semantic transfer to or from the thinker. Evil Revisited David Ray Griffin, 1991-07-03. In this book Griffin responds to critiques of his earlier work God, Power and Evil: A Process Theodicy and discusses ways in which his position has changed in the intervening years. In so doing, he examines the problem of evil, theodicy and philosophical theology and contrasts traditional theism and process theism with regard to the question of omnipotence. Diffractional Reading Kai Merten, 2021-05-27. Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts, this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffractive Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live Transformational Politics Stephen Brim Woolpert, Christa Daryl Slaton, Edward W.

Schwerin, 1998-01-01 Argues that traditional political science is failing to identify and address fundamental political phenomena of our time and proposes an alternative value based political science Postmodernism and Public Policy John

B. Cobb, 2002-01-01 Develops a naturalistic postmodern perspective to make constructive proposals about a wide range of topics now in public discussion Mothership Connections Theodore Walker Jr., 2012-02-01 Bringing a black Atlantic approach to constructive postmodern efforts to understand and transcend modern worldviews and modern world orders

Mothership Connections draws upon the work of scholars in the tradition of W E B Du Bois Charles H Long Alfred North Whitehead and Charles Hartshorne The author shows that connections to the originating influences of transatlantic slavery and black Atlantic experiences are essential to any adequate account of modernity and postmodernity He also argues that metaphysics is essential to theology and moral theory synthesizing neoclassical metaphysics and black theology to develop a black Atlantic account of metaphysical aspects of struggle power and ethical deliberation Religious Life in a New
