Norms Values and Society is the second Yearbook of the Vienna Circle Institute which was founded in October 1991 The main part of the book contains original contributions to an international symposium the Institute held in October 1993 on ethics and social philosophy The papers deal among others with questions of justice equality just social institutions human rights the connections between rationality and morality and the methodological problems of applied ethics The Documentation section contains previously unpublished papers by Rudolf Carnap Philipp Frank Charles W Morris and Edgar Zilsel and the review section presents new publications on the Vienna Circle The Vienna Circle Institute is devoted to the critical advancement of science and philosophy in the broad tradition of the Vienna Circle as well as to the focusing of cross disciplinary interest on the history and philosophy of science in a social context The Institute s Yearbooks will for the most part document its activities and provide a forum for the discussion of exact philosophy logical and empirical investigations and analysis of language

Kuhn's Structure of Scientific Revolutions at Fifty Robert J. Richards, Lorraine Daston, 2016-03-25

Thomas S Kuhn s The Structure of Scientific Revolutions was a watershed event when it was published in 1962 upending the previous understanding of science as a slow logical accumulation of facts and introducing with the concept of the paradigm shift social and psychological considerations into the heart of the scientific process More than fifty years after its publication Kuhn s work continues to influence thinkers in a wide range of fields including scientists historians and sociologists It is clear that The Structure of Scientific Revolutions itself marks no less of a paradigm shift than those it describes In Kuhn s Structure of

Scientific Revolutions at Fifty leading social scientists and philosophers explore the origins of Kuhn's masterwork and its legacy fifty years on These essays exhume important historical context for Kuhn's work critically analyzing its foundations in twentieth century science politics and Kuhn's own intellectual biography his experiences as a physics graduate student his close relationship with psychologists before and after the publication of Structure and the Cold War framework of terms such as world view and paradigm
