Margit Rohringer

Scramble For The Balkans:

Scramble for the Balkans Carl-Ulrik Schierup, 1999-03-14 Economic globalisation has produced austere social jeopardy in extended parts of post communist Europe with former Yugoslavia and its successor states as the most conspicuous example This state is exploited sanctioned and nourished by authoritarian ethnocratic regimes and misconceived Western policies may contribute to its persistence Bringing new perspectives to bear on these crucial issues Scramble for the Balkans is essential for scholars and professionals concerned with social reconstruction in the world s increasing number of complex emergencies

Transnationalism in the Balkans Denisa Kostovicova, Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic, 2013-10-18 After a decade of exclusive nationalism violence and isolation of the 1990s the Balkans has seen the emergence of transnational links between the former ethnic foes Do these new cross border links herald the era of inter ethnic reconciliation in place of the politics of ethnic exclusion Are they a proof of a successful transition from authoritarianism and war to democracy and peace Drawing on substantial empirical research by regional specialists Transnationalism in the Balkans provides a sobering insight into the nature of cross border links in the region and their implications Several of the authors show how transnational connections in the context of weak states and new borders in the region have been used by transnational actors be it in the politics economics and culture to undermine a democratic consolidation and keep the practice of exclusive ethnic politics and identities alive These findings make a strong case to go beyond the region and put forth a critical argument for rethinking the theories of transition to democracy in the post Communist and post conflict setting to incorporate a dimension of globalisation This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics

War and Change in the Balkans Brad K. Blitz, 2006-10-12 A contemporary history of the Balkans from the break up of Yugoslavia to the present day first published in 2006

Grand Delusion Gabriel Gorodetsky, 1999-01-01 A history of the German invasion of Russia in 1941 in the light of archival material It challenges the view that Stalin was about to invade Germany when Hitler made a pre emptive strike arguing that Stalin was actually negotiating for peace in order to redress the European balance of power

Documents on the Balkans - History, Memory, Identity Margit Rohringer, 2020-06-01 This book explores historical discourses on the various forms of identity production in film that are based on memory and shows how these narratives get mediated by documentary film Most films about the Balkans produced in the last two decades were in fact made in response to immediate concerns about the economic crises and political conflicts that struck the region during the 1990s These new forms of communication about history mostly show a rather self critical approach The book s case studies give the reader a clear idea of how processes informing identity formations are directly launched and later on maintained in peoples real and everyday lives Thus the case studies principal objective is to integrate the study of private space with existing macro debates in politics as well as with dominant discourses within the academic community The included case studies focus on several topics i e migration the reproduction and protection of personal as well as collective identities in post socialist societies revolutionary processes towards the official end of the Cold War the re creation of politically constructed narratives generational conflicts in the post socialist period and the fate of women during the war The multifaceted view of the region under focus in this study shows that common grounds and differences co exist in the Balkan space be it on a cultural economic social or geo political level Apart from the field of film studies this work is a powerful contribution to cultural history as well as to the growing field of visual history

Political Elites and Decentralization Reforms in the Post-Socialist Balkans

Alexander Kleibrink, 2015-08-11 Across the globe more powers are being devolved to local and regional levels of government This book provides an innovative analysis of such decentralisation in transition states in the Balkans Using new and rich data it shows how political elites use decentralisation strategically to ensure their access to state resources

Local Agency and Peacebuilding S. Kappler, 2014-01-30 Investigating local responses to EU peacebuilding this book develops a relational and spatial concept of agency helping to understand the processes in which peacebuilding actors engage and interact with one another The focus on cultural actors reveals the contested nature of local agency and its potential to challenge institutional policies
