Race, Ethnicity, and Language Data Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Care Services, Subcommittee on Standardized Collection of Race/Ethnicity Data for Healthcare Quality Improvement, 2009-12-30 The goal of eliminating disparities in health care in the United States remains elusive Even as quality improves on specific measures disparities often persist Addressing these disparities must begin with the fundamental step of bringing the nature of the disparities and the groups at risk for those disparities to light by collecting health care quality information stratified by race ethnicity and language data Then attention can be focused on where interventions might be best applied and on planning and evaluating those efforts to inform the development of policy and the application of resources A lack of standardization of categories for race ethnicity and language data has been suggested as one obstacle to achieving more widespread collection and utilization of these data Race Ethnicity and Language Data identifies current models for collecting and coding race ethnicity and language data reviews challenges involved in obtaining these data and makes recommendations for a nationally standardized approach for use in health care quality improvement

The

Cinematic Representation of the Chinese American Family Qijun Han, 2016-03-08 There has been an increasing recognition of the fluidity and ambiguity of ethnic identities within the context of global mobility With that in mind how have films constructed the identity of ethnic Chinese in the United States This book addresses this issue through three sub questions First why is the family narrative so characteristic of films about Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema In other words how and why are images of Chinese or Chinese Americans in transnational Chinese cinema different from those in Hollywood movies Second how does transnational Chinese cinema define and negotiate the aesthetic conventions of melodrama commonly used to depict Chinese American families In terms of establishing melodrama as an evolving mode of how does Chinese American cinema historically connect with both Hollywood and Chinese cinema Third what have the narrative treatments of Chinese American families in transnational Chinese cinema contributed to the ongoing representation of Chinese culture and construction of ethnic Chinese identities in Western societies This book traverses fields such as cultural studies Chinese studies media studies American studies and film studies and engages with a select corpus of films from the 1990s to the 2000s directed by Chinese American Taiwanese and Hong Kong filmmakers and produced in the USA Taiwan Hong Kong and mainland China to analyze the role the American Chinese family plays in their work With sensitivity towards transnational bonds and historical processes a negotiation process of three sets of conflicting forces has subsequently emerged the traditional and the modern the national and the transnational and Chinese American identity crisis in favor of a Chinese identity or a true American identity Contrasting cultural beliefs undoubtedly create cross cultural and generational conflicts within the family yet also open the way to negotiation and compromise This research on the cinematic depiction of Chinese Americans reveals the historically significant transnational connection among Chinese American Chinese and American cultures On the one hand ethnic Chinese are represented by boundaries that establish and define the Chinese American community against other communities and yet on the other hand the representation of family life and structure of Chinese immigrants is multiple and fluid as culture itself is unstable and uncertain Therefore a process of fixation and a process of fluidity seem to take place at the same time Hollywood Goes Oriental Karla Rae Fuller, 2010 Fuller s study of images of Asian Americans in film takes an insightful approach by examining the practice of performances in yellowface white or in rare cases black actors portraying Asian characters Hollywood Goes Oriental makes a substantial contribution to the literature in Asian American studies Frank H Wu chancellor and dean at the University of California Hastings College of the Law Criminalization/Assimilation Philippa Gates, 2019-03-08 Pt 1 Hollywood s Chinese America Introduction Yellow peril protest and an orientalist gaze Hollywood s constructions of Chinese Americans Pt 2 Chinatown crime Imperilled imperialism Tong wars slave girls and opium dens The whitening of Chinatown action cops and upstanding criminals Pt 3 Chinatown melodrama The perils of proximity white downfall in the Chinatown melodrama Tainted blood white fears of yellow miscegenation Pt 4 Chinese American assimilation Assimilation and tourism Chinese American
