Spiritual Disciplines within the Church Donald S. Whitney, 1996-09-10 You're worth it You deserve a break today Do something nice for yourself Commonly heard phrases in this society committed to self gratification and individual rights Doing things for other people is a waste of precious time and asking for help weak So how do we build the church described in the Scriptures In this day and age how can we be a genuine community based on self sacrifice and mutual commitment In Spiritual Disciplines Within the Church seminary professor author and former pastor Don Whitney shows us how to build a sense of community and be active participants instead of passive attendees Whitney looks at such frequently asked questions as Why can't I get by on my own Why should I go to church Why should I give of myself to the church Why do I need to worship in church Couldn't I just worship in nature Why does it matter whether I become a member of the church Committed love must mark the local expression of the body of Christ By putting spiritual disciplines into practice in the church congregations can return to the depth of community present in the New Testament church where they devoted themselves to the apostles teaching and to the fellowship to the breaking of bread and to prayer
