became a leading innovator in Australian children's television production and a voice to be reckoned with in a tough business. As a regulator and policy maker, Dr Edgar's take-no-prisoners style won her great fans and made her bitter enemies. Dr Edgar was the first woman appointed to the Australian Broadcasting Control Board. For ten years she fought for more locally produced first-release children's drama on Australian television. In the early 1980s she helped establish the Australian Children's Television Foundation, creating some of the most celebrated television ever produced for Australian children, including the Round the Twist series, which sold into more than 100 countries. During her twenty-year tenure, the ACTF won multiple awards, including a coveted Emmy, and made co-productions with the BBC, Disney, and Revcom. Along the way, Dr Edgar worked with a host of notable Australians, including Janet and Robert Holmes O'Court, Bruce Gyngell, Hazel Hawke, Phillip Adams, Gulumbu Yunupingu, and her brothers Galarrwuy and Mandawuy. Steve Vizard, Hilary McPhee, and Paul Jennings' Bloodbath sets its author's triumphs and setbacks in the television industry into the wider perspective of political and economic change, the forces of consumerism, and the global marketplace. This memoir reveals Dr Edgar as she really is: a sensitive, thoughtful, determined woman still working to make the media environment one of quality, not pap, and a force for learning as well as entertainment. Bloodbath is a must-read for every Australian in the media industry, every parent raising a child, every woman who ever strove for career success, and anyone interested in how leadership works. Trump Fiction Stephen Hock, 2019-11-15 Trump Fiction: Essays on Donald Trump in Literature, Film, and Television examines depictions of Donald Trump and his fictional avatars in literature, film, and television, including works that took up the subject of Trump before his successful presidential campaign in terms that often uncannily prefigure his presidency as well as those that have appeared since he took office. Covering a range of texts and approaches, the essays in this collection analyze the place Trump has assumed in literary and popular culture. By investigating how authors including Bret Easton Ellis, Amy Waldman, Thomas Pynchon, Howard Jacobson, Mark Doten, Olivia Laing, and Salman Rushdie, along with films and television programs like The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air, Sesame Street, Sex and the City, Two Weeks Notice, Our Cartoon President, and Pose have approached and shaped the discourse surrounding Trump, the contributors collectively demonstrate the ways these cultural artifacts serve as sites through which the culture both resists and abets Trump and his rise to power. My ABC's Linda Hayward, 1989 Activities to help a child learn the alphabet. The Sesame Street Treasury of Words, Numbers, and Poems, 1997 A collection of previously published stories, poems, and other Sesame Street favorites. Sesame Street Sarah Albee, 2010 Little Ernie's ABC's Anna Ross, 1992 Characters from Sesame Street explain the alphabet.
