Conner, 2012-04-29 To many James Joyce is simply the greatest novelist of the twentieth century Scholars have pored over every minutia of his public and private life from utility bills to deeply personal letters in search of new insights into his life and work Yet for the most part they have paid scant attention to the two volumes of poetry he published The nine contributors to The Poetry of James Joyce Reconsidered convincingly challenge the critical consensus that Joyce's poetry is inferior to his prose They reveal how his poems provide entries into Joyce's most personal and intimate thoughts and ideas They also demonstrate that Joyce's poetic explorations of the nature of knowledge sexual intimacy the changing quality of love the relations between writing and music and the religious dimensions of the human experience were fundamental to his development as a writer of prose This exciting new work is sure to spark new interest in Joyce's poetry and will become an essential and indispensable resource for students and scholars of his life and work Ciaran Carson Neal Alexander, 2010-01-01 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org Ciaran Carson is one of the most challenging and inventive of contemporary Irish writers exhibiting verbal brilliance formal complexity and intellectual daring across a remarkably varied body of work This study considers the full range of his oeuvre in poetry prose and translations and discusses the major themes to which he returns including memory and history narrative language and translation mapping violence and power It argues that the singularity of Carson's writing is to be found in his radical imaginative engagements with ideas of space and place The city of Belfast in particular occupies a crucially important place in his texts serving as an imaginative focal point around which his many other concerns are constellated The city in all its volatile mutability is an abiding frame of reference and a reservoir of creative impetus for Carson's imagination Accordingly the book adopts an interdisciplinary approach that draws upon geography urbanism and cultural theory as well as literary criticism It provides both a stimulating and thorough introduction to Carson's work and a flexible critical framework for exploring literary representations of space Imaginary Peaks Katie Ives, 2021-10-01 2022 Banff Mountain Book Competition Special Jury Mention A book every thoughtful adventurer and seeker of dreams should read Outside Using an infamous deception about a fake mountain range in British Columbia as her jumping off point Katie Ives the well known editor of Alpinist explores the lure of blank spaces on the map and the value of the imagination In Imaginary Peaks she details the cartographical mystery of the Riesenstein Hoax within the larger context of climbing history and the seemingly endless quest for newly discovered peaks and claims of first ascents Imaginary Peaks is an evocative thought provoking tale immersed in the literature of exploration study of maps and basic human desire Politics of Identity in Post-Conflict States Éamonn Ó Ciardha, Gabriela Vojvoda, 2015-12-14 Ireland and the Balkans have come to represent divided and re united communities They both provide effective microcosms of national ethnic political military religious ideological and cultural conflicts in their respective regions and as a result they demonstrate real and imaginary divisions This book will specifically focus on the history politics and literature of Bosnia Herzegovina and Northern Ireland while making comparative reference to some of Europe's other disputed and divided regions Using case studies such as Kosovo and Serbia Lithuania Germany Poland Russia and Belarus Greece and Macedonia it examines space place and border discourse the topography of war and violence post war settlement and reconciliation and the location and negotiation of national ethnic religious political and cultural identities The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of cultural studies history politics Irish studies Slavonic studies area studies and literary studies Framing the Environmental Humanities, 2018-07-17 The concept of framing has long intrigued and troubled scholars in fields including philosophy rhetoric media studies and literary criticism But framing also has rich implications for environmental debate urging us to reconsider how we understand the relationship between humans and their ecological environment culture and nature The contributors to this wide ranging volume use the concept of framing to engage with key questions in environmental literature history politics film TV and pedagogy In so doing they show that framing can serve as a valuable analytical tool connecting different academic discourses within the emergent interdisciplinary field of the environmental humanities No less importantly they demonstrate how increased awareness of framing strategies and framing effects can help us move society in a more sustainable direction

Imaging Identity Johannes Riquet, Martin Heusser, 2019-11-30 This volume explores the many facets and ongoing transformations of our visual identities in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Its chapters engage with the constitution of personal national and cultural identities at the intersection of the verbal and the visual across a range of media They are attentive to how the medialities and im materialities of modern image culture inflect our conceptions of identity examining the cultural and political force of literature films online video messages rap songs selfies digital algorithms social media computer generated images photojournalism and branding among others They also reflect on the image theories that emerged in the same time span from early theorists such as Charles S Peirce to twentieth century models like those proposed by Roland Barthes and Jacques Derrida as well as more recent theories by Jacques Rancière W J T Mitchell and others The contributors of Imaging Identity come from a wide range of disciplines including literary studies media studies art history tourism studies and semiotics The book will appeal to an interdisciplinary readership interested in contemporary visual culture and image theory

Where Land Meets Sea Anna Ryan, 2016-02-11 Drawing together philosophical empirical and academic thinking this book focuses on generating awareness of the relationship forged between self and surroundings It details research undertaken at two coastal sites the South Wall in Dublin city and the Maharees peninsula in Co Kerry Ireland Sixty two participants were engaged in photography and drawing to enable this exploration of spatial experience The participants photographs and drawings present how spatial sensibilities can be revealed by becoming more attentive to the immediacy of bodily knowledge our more than cognitive experience Their communications resonate with the philosophers and theorists considered including Merleau Ponty Edward Casey Gilles Deleuze Dalibor Vesely and contemporary cultural geographers From exploring the experienced spatiality of the meeting of land and sea this book begins to suggest an alternative politics of the coast

Strategy without Design Robert C. H. Chia, Robin Holt, 2009-10-08 Strategy exhibits a pervasive commitment to the belief that the best approach to adopt in dealing with affairs of the world is to confront overcome and subjugate things to conform to our will control and eventual mastery Performance is about sustaining distinctiveness This direct and deliberate approach draws inspiration from ancient Greek roots and has become orthodoxy Yet there are downsides This book shows why Using examples from the world of business economics military strategy politics and philosophy it argues that success may inadvertently emerge from the everyday coping actions of a multitude of individuals none of whom intended to contribute to any preconceived design A consequence of this claim is that a paradox exists in strategic interventions one that no strategist can afford to ignore The more single mindedly a strategic goal is sought the more likely such calculated instrumental action eventually works to undermine its own initial success

Philosophical Perspectives on Contemporary Ireland Clara Fischer, Áine Mahon, 2019-11-25 This is the first book to bring a philosophical lens to issues of socio political and cultural importance in twenty first century Ireland While the social political and economic landscape of contemporary Ireland has inspired extensive scholarly debate both within and well beyond the field of Irish Studies there is a distinct lack of philosophical voices in these discussions The aim of this volume is to enrich the fields of Philosophy and Irish Studies by encouraging a manifestly philosophical exploration of contemporary issues and concerns The essays in this volume collectively address diverse philosophical questions on contemporary Ireland by exploring a variety of themes including diaspora exile return women s bodies and autonomy historic injustices and national healing remembering and commemoration institutionalization and containment colonialism and Ireland as home conflict and violence Northern Ireland and the peace process nationalism patriotism and masculinities ethnicity immigration and identity and translation art and culture Philosophical Perspectives on Contemporary Ireland marks a significant contribution to contemporary theorizations of Ireland by incorporating both Irish and transatlantic perspectives It will appeal to a broad audience of scholars and advanced students working in philosophy Irish Studies feminist theory history legal studies and literary theory Beyond academia it will also engage those interested in contemporary Ireland from policy and civil society perspectives

Landscape, Memory and History Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew Strathern, 2003-05-20 How do people perceive the land around them and how is that perception changed by history This book explores this question from an anthropological angle assessing the connections between place space identity nationalism history and memory in a variety of different settings around the world Taking historical change and memory as key themes it is a broad study that will appeal to a readership across the social sciences Contributors from North America Australia New Zealand Taiwan and Europe explore a wide variety of case studies that includes seascapes in Jamaica the Solomon Islands the forests of Madagascar Aboriginal and European notions of landscape in Australia place and identity in 19th century maps and the bogs of Ireland contemporary concerns over changing landscapes in Papua New Guinea and representations of landscape and history in the poetry of the Scottish Borders contemporary society Horoscopes and Public Spheres Günther Oestmann, Darrel, H. Rutkin, Kocku von Stuckrad, 2012-02-14 This volume examines the specific role of horoscopic astrology in Western culture from antiquity to the nineteenth century Focusing on the public appearance of astrological rhetoric the essays break new ground for a better understanding of the function of horoscopes in public discourse The volume s three parts address the use of imperial horoscopes in late antiquity the transformation of doctrines and rhetorics in Islamic medieval contexts and the important status of astrology in early modern Europe The combination of in depth historical studies and methodological considerations results in an important contribution to religious and cultural studies A Geography of Secrets Frederick Reuss, 2010-09-01 Two men One discovers the cost of keeping secrets of building a career within a government agency where secrets are the operational basis Noel Leonard works for the Defense Intelligence Agency mapping coordinates for military actions halfway around the world One morning he learns that an error in his office is responsible for the bombing of a school in Pakistan And he knows suddenly that he is as alone as he is wrong From his windowless office in DC to an intelligence conference in Switzerland and back to his daughter s college in Virginia Noel claws his way toward a more personally honest life in which he can tell his family everything every day Another man learns that family secrets have kept him from who he is and from the ineluctable ways he is attached to a world he has always disdained This unnamed narrator a cartographer is the son of a career diplomat whose activities in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War and then in Europe during the Cold War may not have been what they were said to be He too travels to Switzerland but his quest is not to release himself from secrecy it is to learn how deep the secrets in his own life go With a voice like John le Carr s and the international sensibility of Graham Greene Frederick Reuss examines the unavoidably covert nature of lives that make their circles through Washington DC A Geography of Secrets is a novel of the time from an acclaimed author who knows the lay of the land

Pandemic, Ecology and Theology Alexander Hampton, 2020-11-01 As the sequential stages of the 2020 COVID 19 pandemic have unfolded so have its complexities What initially presented as a health emergency has revealed itself to be a phenomenon of many facets It has demonstrated human creativity the oft neglected presence of nature and the resilience of communities Equally it has exposed deep social inequities conceptual inadequacies and structural deficiencies about the way we organize our civilization and our knowledge As the situation continues to advance the question is whether the crisis will be grasped as an opportunity to address the deep structural ecological and social challenges that we brought with us into the second decade of the new millennium This volume addresses the collective sense that the pandemic is more than a problem to manage our way out of Rather it is a moment to consider our broken relationship with the natural world and our alienation from a deeper sense of purpose and meaning The contributors though differing in their diagnoses and recommendations share the belief that this moment with its transformative possibility not be forfeit Equally they share the conviction that the chief ground of any such reorientation ineluctably involves our collective engagement with both ecology and theology

Thinking Continental Tom Lynch, Susan Naramore Maher, Drucilla Wall, O. Alan Weltzien, 2017-11-01 In response to the growing scale and complexity of environmental threats this volume collects articles essays personal narratives and poems by more than forty authors in conversation about thinking continental connecting local and personal landscapes to universal systems and processes to articulate the concept of a global or planetary citizenship Reckoning with the larger matrix of biome region continent hemisphere ocean and planet has become necessary as environmental challenges require the insights not only of scientists but also of poets humanists and social scientists Thinking Continental braids together abstract approaches with strands of more personal narrative and poetry showing how our imaginations can encompass the planetary while also being true to our own concrete life experiences in the here and now Europe's Living Landscapes Bas Pedroli, Anne van Doorn, Geert de Blust, 2014-12-22 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology The first symposium in 2005 was about the National Ecological Network in the Netherlands The reason was that the implementation of the NEN decided upon in 1990 was halfway The second symposium in 2006 was about urban ecology and the third one to be held in 2007 will be about civil infrastructure This book does not cover the conferences completely and new contributions are added The three themes are important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills Of course there are many more subjects to hold conferences about for example climate change urbanisation agriculture landscape ecology itself etc The focus of the conferences is on the Netherlands with its urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features Although many WLO members do their work abroad or in an international context these conferences offer a window on what happens in the Dutch context The experiences may be of value for other contexts and that is why we present the results in English The selected themes and the focus on the Dutch context are serious demarcations of what landscape ecology in the Netherlands is all about The book does not represent all research and applications of landscape ecology Hunter-Gatherer Ireland Graeme Warren, 2022-02-03 Explores the Irish Mesolithic the period after the end of the last Ice Age when Ireland was home to hunter gatherer communities mostly from about 10 000 6 000 years ago At this time Ireland was an island world with striking similarities and differences to its European neighbours not least in terms of the terrestrial ecology created by its island status To understand the communities of hunter gatherers who lived there it is essential that we consider the connections established between people and the other beings and materials with which they shared the world and through which they grew into it Understanding the Mesolithic means paying attention to the animals plants spirits and things with which hunting and gathering groups formed kinship relationships and in collaboration with which they experienced life The book closes with a reflection on hunting and gathering in Ireland today The overriding aim of the book is to provide a point of entry into the lives of the Irish Mesolithic to show the different ways in which people have lived on this island and to show how we might narrate those lives

Setting Foot On The Shores Of Connemara Other Writings : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Setting Foot On The Shores Of Connemara Other Writings : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
