Rufus Putnam, 1872      Dictionary of Irish Literature ,1996      Who's Who in Jewish History Joan Comay, 2023-05-31 From Karl Marx to the Marx brothers the Routledge Who's Who in Jewish History presents a complete reference guide to over a thousand prominent men and women who have shaped Jewish culture Covering twenty centuries of Jewish history it provides detailed biographical information on each leading figure analysis of their role and significance both in Jewish life and the wider culture a comprehensive chronological table displaying the history of the Jewish race a useful glossary giving precise definitions of Jewish words      The Bioregional Imagination Tom Lynch, Cheryll Glotfelty, Karla Armbruster, 2012 Bioregionalism is an innovative way of thinking about place and planet from an ecological perspective Although bioregional ideas occur regularly in ecocritical writing until now no systematic effort has been made to outline the principles of bioregional literary criticism and to use it as a way to read write understand and teach literature The twenty four original essays here are written by an outstanding selection of international scholars The range of bioregions covered is global and includes such diverse places as British Columbia's Meldrum Creek and Italy's Po River Valley the Arctic and the Outback There are even forays into cyberspace and outer space In their comprehensive introduction the editors map the terrain of the bioregional movement including its history and potential to inspire and invigorate place based and environmental literary criticism Responding to bioregional tenets this volume is divided into four sections The essays in the Reinhabiting section narrate experiments in living in place and restoring damaged environments The Rereading essays practice bioregional literary criticism both by examining texts with strong ties to bioregional paradigms and by opening other less obvious texts to bioregional analysis In Reimagining the essays push bioregionalism to evolve by expanding its corpus of texts coupling its perspectives with other approaches or challenging its core constructs Essays in the Renewal section address bioregional pedagogy beginning with local habitat studies and concluding with musings about the Internet In response to the environmental crisis we must reimagine our relationship to the places we inhabit This volume shows how literature and literary studies are fundamental tools to such a reimagining      The Literary Spirit Among the Early Ohio Valley

Falci, 2012-07-30 In this book Eric Falci reshapes the story of Irish poetry since the 1960s He shows how polemical arguments concerning the role of poetry in 1960s Ireland evolve into a set of formal and compositional strategies for emerging Irish poets in the mid 1970s and beyond His study presents a cohesive picture of the relationship between Northern Irish poetry from the Republic of Ireland since World War II and traces the lineage of lyric practice from a unique historical perspective At the same time it recontextualizes late twentieth century Irish poetry within the long Irish poetic tradition places Irish writing more accurately within the field of postwar Anglophone poetry and offers a new account of lyric 's critical capacities Of interest to Irish studies and twentieth century poetry specialists this book provides a much needed
