Changing Our World Nigel Watson,2015-01-01 This book addresses some key questions Did the marine sector drive the developing technologies Or did it just adopt them It would appear that the former is the case as the industry has moved from sail to steam from steam to internal combustion engines from wood to steel and to increasing sizes and types of specialist vessels the pioneers of naval architects and marine engineers have applied the latest technologies and our global society has benefited      African Migrations Abdoulaye Kane,Todd H. Leedy,2013-02-18 Engaging case studies add to understanding the social processes of voluntary and forced displacement within the continent and across the seas Choice Spurred by major changes in the world economy and in local ecology the contemporary migration of Africans both within the continent and to various destinations in Europe and North America has seriously affected thousands of lives and livelihoods The contributors to this volume reflecting a variety of disciplinary perspectives examine the causes and consequences of this new migration The essays cover topics such as rural urban migration into African cities transnational migration and the experience of immigrants abroad as well as the issues surrounding migrant identity and how Africans re create community and strive to maintain ethnic gender national and religious ties to their former homes      Picture History of British Ocean Liners, 1900 to the Present William H.
