Seven Stones A Portrait Of Arthur Erickson Architect:

Seven Stones Edith Iglauer, 1981-01-01 A study of the architect's work including the reshaping of downtown Los Angeles and an entire city in the Middle East and Simon Fraser University in Canada Ernst L. Freud, Architect Volker M.

Welter, 2011-10-01 Ernst L. Freud 1892-1970 was a son of Sigmund Freud and the father of painter Lucian Freud and the late Sir Clement Freud politician and broadcaster. After his studies in Munich and Vienna where he and his friend Richard Neutra attended Adolf Loos's private Bauschule, Freud practiced in Berlin and after 1933 in London. Even though his work focused on domestic architecture and interiors, Freud was possibly the first architect to design psychoanalytical consulting rooms including the customary couches a subject dealt with here for the first time. By interweaving an account of Freud's professional and personal life in Vienna, Berlin, and London with a critical discussion of selected examples of his domestic architecture, interior designs, and psychoanalytic consulting rooms, the author offers a rich tapestry of Ernst L. Freud's world. His clients constituted a Who's Who of the Jewish and non-Jewish bourgeoisie in 1920s Berlin and later in London, among them the S. Fischer publisher family, Melanie Klein, Ernest Jones, the Spenders, and Julian Huxley. While moving within a social class known for its cultural and avant-garde activities, Freud refrained from spatial formal or technological experiments.

Instead, he focused on creating modern homes for his bourgeois clients. Seven Stones Edith Iglauer, 1981 Her handsomely illustrated book is a hymn of praise to the most discussed Canadian architect of our time Robert Fulford. Saturday Night Ron Thom, Architect Adele Weder, 2022-09-13 A definitive biography of an iconic Canadian architect and a social portrait of the mid-century design world he lived in, Ron Thom came of age in the mid-20th century just as the modern movement and an impending building boom were about to reshape the country. Talented in music and art as well as design, he rejected sleek austerity in favor of modern architecture that is warm, intimate, and beautiful. He worked from coast to coast, and his most renowned buildings, Massey College, Trent University, the Shaw Festival Theatre, and landmark houses, continue to inspire generations of architects as well as the legions of people who work, study, visit, and live in them. In Adele Weder's new biography, Thom emerges as a complex figure, gifted with creative genius but pursued by demons. More than just the life story of one man, this book is a portrait of the society that shaped him. His world included Jack Shadbolt, Arthur Erickson, the Massey family, Barbara and Murray Frum, and many other luminaries of 20th-century Canada. To unpack this multifaceted story, Weder pored through institutional and personal archives in Victoria, Vancouver, Calgary, Montreal, Peterborough, and Toronto. She tracked down and interviewed Thom's surviving friends, colleagues, and family members across the country, from New Brunswick to Vancouver Island. Her extensive research serves as the bedrock for Ron Thom Architect, a book for anyone interested in a transformative era in Canada's cultural history. Arthur Erickson Barbara Shapiro Comte, Arthur Erickson, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 1985 Art Et Architecture Au Canada Loren Ruth Lerner, Mary F.

creative figures profiled in Made in British Columbia are not just distinguished artists who made an enduring mark on Canadian culture during the twentieth century. They are unique artists whose work is intimately interwoven with British Columbia's identity. Emily Carr portrayed BC's coastal landscape in a manner as unique as her lifestyle. Bill Reid's carvings, jewellery and sculpture stand as a contemporary interpretation of his reclaimed Haida heritage. The name Francis Rattenbury is less known than The Empress Hotel in Victoria, one of many prominent BC buildings he designed, while Arthur Erickson's modern architectural contributions are recognized worldwide. Martin Allerdale Grainger's experience in the BC woods in the early days of hand logging inspired him to write one of the undisputed classics of BC fiction, Woodsmen of the West. Jean Coulthard struggled for respect as a female composer during the 1920s and 1930s in British Columbia but eventually proved her extraordinary musical talents internationally. George Woodcock left Britain in 1949 to forge his career as an influential author, editor, mentor and tireless promoter of literary scholarship in the province, while playwright George Ryga, the son of Ukrainian immigrants, exposed the anguish and reality of life for Native women in our cities with his 1967 play The Ecstasy of Rita Joe. Featuring images of the artists and their works, Made in British Columbia presents a history of the treasures found in our galleries, concert halls, theatres, museums, libraries and streetscapes and explores the legacy of a cultural tradition as unique as the place that nurtured it.

A History of Canadian Architecture Harold D. Kalman, Harold Kalman, 1994

Architects Today Kester Rattenbury, Robert Bevan, Kieran Long, 2006-08-10 This volume offers both an introduction to and an insight into key contemporary architects as well as giving a snapshot of the varied nature of architecture today. For each architect, there are details of their life and work and illustrations of their most representative and iconic buildings.

Cornelia Hahn Oberlander Susan Herrington, 2014-01-01 Cornelia Hahn Oberlander is one of the most important landscape architects of the twentieth century, yet despite her lasting influence, few outside the field know her name. Her work has been instrumental in the development of the late twentieth-century design ethic, and her early years working with architectural luminaries such as Louis Kahn and Dan Kiley prepared her to bring a truly modern and audaciously abstract sensibility to the landscape design tradition. In Cornelia Hahn Oberlander: Making the Modern Landscape, Susan Herrington draws upon archival research, site analyses and numerous interviews with Oberlander and her collaborators to offer the first biography of this adventurous and influential landscape architect. Born in 1921, Oberlander fled Nazi Germany at the age of eighteen, with her family going on to become one of the few women to graduate from Harvard University's Graduate School of Design in the late 1940s. For six decades, she has practiced socially responsible and ecologically sensitive planning for public landscapes, including the 1970s design of the Robson Square landscape and its adjoining Provincial Law Courts, one of Vancouver's most famous spaces. Herrington places Oberlander within a larger social and aesthetic context, chronicling both her personal and professional trajectory and her work in New York, Philadelphia, Vancouver, Seattle, Berlin, Toronto and Montreal. Oberlander is a progenitor of some of the most significant currents informing landscape architecture today.

particularly in the area of ecological focus In her thorough biography Herrington draws much deserved attention to one of the truly important figures in landscape architecture The Urban Geography Reader NICK FYFE, JUDITH
