Seven Windows F. Zarod Rominski,1985      Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J. Love,2006-09-22 Documenting key feminists who ignited the second wave women s movement Barbara J Love s Feminists Who Changed America 1963 1975 will be the first comprehensive directory to document many of the founders and leaders including both well known and grassroots organizers of the second wave women s movement It tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women s movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws The biographical entries on these pioneering feminists represent their many factions all parts of the country all races and ethnic groups and all political ideologies Nancy Cott s foreword discusses the movement in relation to the earlier first wave and presents a brief overview of the second wave in the context of other contemporaneous social movements      New Books on Women and Feminism ,1986      Window Dressing on the Set United States Commission on Civil Rights,1977      Goddesses & Wise Women Anne Carson,1992      Through the Window, Out the Door Janis P. Stout,2020-11-10 This informative and provocative study focuses on the centrality of departure in the texts of five major American women novelists An important moment in many novels and poems by American women writers occurs when a central character looks out a window or walks out the door of a house These acts of departure serve to convey such values as the rejection of constraining social patterns the search for individual fulfillment and the entry into the political Janis Stout examines such moments and related patterns of venture and travel in the fiction of five major American novelists of the 20th century Mary Austin Willa Cather Anne Tyler Toni Morrison and Joan Didion Stout views these five writers within a spectrum of narrative engagements with issues of home and departure a spectrum anchored at one end by Sarah Orne Jewett and at the other by Marilynne Robinson whose Housekeeping posits a vision of female transience Through the Window Out the Door ranges over an expansive territory Moving between texts as well as between texts and contexts Stout shows how women writers have envisioned the walls of physical and social structures including genres as permeable boundaries drawing on both a rhetoric of liberation and a rhetoric of domesticity to construct narrative arguments for women s right to move freely between the two Stout concludes with a personal essay on the dilemmas of domesticity and the ambivalence of departure      The American Architect and Building News ,1894      Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993      Annual Report Massachusetts. American women Sweeney analyzes how prisoners read three popular genres narratives of victimization urban crime fiction and self help books She outlines the history of reading and education in U S prisons highlighting how the increasing dehumanization of prisoners has resulted in diminished prison libraries and restricted opportunities for reading Although penal officials have sometimes endorsed reading as a means to control prisoners Sweeney illuminates the resourceful ways in which prisoners educate and empower themselves through reading Given the scarcity of counseling and education in prisons women use books to make meaning from their experiences to gain guidance and support to experiment with new ways of being and to maintain connections with the world Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya

Abudi,2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship and as the cornerstone of Arab family life Drawing on autobiographical and semifictional works by women writers from across the Arab world the study offers a first hand account of how Arab women view and experience this primary bond The author uses both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life The compelling narratives demystify the institutions of family and motherhood and show the potential of mothers and daughters to transform the patriarchal family and thus the fabric of Arab society A groundbreaking work that fills a void in cross cultural studies it is of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern studies women s studies and family studies
