Ernest Hemingway Audre Hanneman, 2015-12-08 This bibliography of Hemingway's writings and related materials includes for the first time all of his books, pamphlets, stories, articles, newspaper contributions, juvenilia, library holdings of his letters and manuscripts, items written about Hemingway between 1918 and 1965, and short excerpts from reviews of each of Hemingway's novels. It is the first bibliography of Hemingway published since 1931 and includes much material never before assembled: thirty-eight contributions to his high school newspaper Trapeze; twenty-eight Spanish Civil War dispatches and first editions published in some thirty foreign languages. First editions of books and pamphlets, both American and English, with bibliographic descriptions are given. Originally published in 1967, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

The Critics and Hemingway, 1924-2014 Laurence W. Mazzeno, 2015 Traces Hemingway's critical fortunes over the ninety years of his prominence, telling us something about what we value in literature and why scholarly reputations rise and fall. Hemingway burst on the literary scene in the 1920s with spare, penetrating short stories and brilliant novels. Soon he was held as a standard for modern writers. Meanwhile he used his celebrity to create a persona like the stoic macho heroes of his fiction. After a decline during the 1930s and 1940s, he came roaring back with The Old Man and the Sea in 1952. Two years later he received the Nobel Prize. While his popularity waxed and waned during his lifetime, Hemingway's reputation among scholars remained strong as long as traditional scholarship dominated. New approaches beginning in the 1960s brought a sea change, however, finding grave fault with his work and making him a figure ripe for vilification. Yet during this time scholarship on him continued to appear. His works still sell well, and several are staples on high school and college syllabi. A new scholarly edition of his letters is drawing prominent attention, and there is a resurgence in scholarly attention to and approbation for his work. Tracing Hemingway's critical fortunes tells us something about what we value in literature and why reputations rise and fall as scholars find new ways to examine and interpret creative work Laurence W Mazzeno is President Emeritus of Alvernia University Among other books he has written volumes on Austen Dickens Tennyson Updike and Matthew Arnold for Camden House's Literary Criticism in Perspective series

The Fiction of Ernest Hemingway N.G. Meshram, 2002 The Book Projects Ernest Hemingway As An Artist With A Broader Vision Than He Is Generally Understood This Vision Highlights The Profound Sympathy For Women And For Those Who Suffer In Indifferent Rather Hostile Society The Author Has Tried To Attribute That Divine Love To Hemingway's Artistic Vision Often Denoted By The Greek Word Agape This Make Hemingway Not Only A Great Modernist Artist But Also A Sage Speaking For The Entire Humanity That Hemingway Has Obsessively Dealt With Such Violent Themes As War Is True It Is Nonetheless True That By Doing So He Has Exposed The Futility And Destructiveness Associated With It The Hemingway's Hero Is A Defeated Man But Never Crestfallen He Is Able To Retain His Dignity Even In The Face Of Crisis His Tragedy Is The Result Of Love Which For Him Is An Alternate God And Ultimately Of Labor Which He Puts In As A Matter Of Profound Faith The Book Demonstrates This Effectively And Should Be A Unique Contribution To The Hemingway Scholarship In India And Abroad

Signs of Identity Emilia Parpală, 2018-07-27 This volume conceives of identity constructs in a broader semiotic way specifically within a communicational and comparative perspective This implies a rethinking of identity in terms of the relationship between an individual's way of being and performativity The contributions here cover a variety of pre texts texts and contexts periods and genres from Medieval clothing to multicultural discourse and from modern poetry to postcolonial narratives among others Integrating research from Germany Greece Iraq and Romania this collection of fifteen chapters will be of interest to all those involved in the reevaluation of identity a central term in the social and cultural space

Re-Entering Old Spaces Aleksandra Nikcevic-Batricevic, 2016-05-11 This book is a product of the XI International Conference on English Language and Literary Studies held in Montenegro in 2014 The old spaces were taken as a metaphorical tool for reintroducing a wide range of established topics with new approaches Space was thus understood as physical mechanical continuous linear as measurable and symbolic as subjective and relational and as aesthetic It was found on maps in architecture on theatre stages in books in hearts in one's identity in time and in theses and theories from the Aristotelian topos to Einstein's construct of space time Therefore the means of travel to these spaces and the forms the journeys take are also multifarious However so are the discursive strategies and their limitations when it comes to presenting the journeys and their destinations The contributors to this volume represent a range of nationalities and present research that either follows in the footsteps of other authors in a literal or secondary literary journey to real geographical places or observes the universal literary and old theoretical issues through new critical lenses Indeed they are often on both roads witnessing how inextricable human efforts are to finding identifying and aestheticising oneself in relation to a particular space Their contributions to this book expose how spaces were created and recreated through writing and symbolical representations in general They also show how the images of these spaces have been changing in consent to the intentions of their visitors and reveal that persistent and obstinate moment in a space that despite or in spite of changing perspectives itself refuses to be changed The book will encourage for further contributions to this expanding field in the humanities In their numerous and distinct ways the contributions to this particular book maintain that understanding how spaces are conceived and conceptualised is of pronounced importance in the globalized world in which cultures are gradually losing authenticities while their spaces geographical tourist spiritual literary aesthetic are as reflective of the visitors as they are of the hosts
