Seventeen Syllables And Other Stories:

Seventeen Syllables and Other Stories Hisaye Yamamoto, 1988 In addition to the contents of the original volume this edition brings back into print the following works Death Rides the Rails to Poston Eucalyptus A Fire in Fontana Florentine Gardens Seventeen syllables and other stories King-Kok Cheung, 1988 Seventeen Syllables Hisaye Yamamoto, 1994 Hisaye Yamamoto's often reprinted tale of a naive American daughter and her Japanese mother captures the essence the cultural and generational conflicts so common among immigrants and their American born children On the surface Seventeen Syllables is the story of Rosie and her preoccupation with adolescent life Between the lines however lurks the tragedy of her mother who is trapped in a marriage of desperation Tome's deep absorption in writing haiku causes a rift with her husband which escalates to a tragic event that changes Rosie's life forever Yamamoto's disarming style matches the verbal economy of haiku in which all meaning is contained within seventeen syllables Her deft characterizations and her delineations of sexuality create a haunting story of a young girl's transformation from innocence to adulthood This casebook includes an introduction and an essay by the editor an interview with the author a chronology authoritative texts of Seventeen Syllables 1949 and Yonoko's Earthquake 1951 critical essays and a bibliography The contributors are Charles L Crow Donald C Goellnicht Elaine H Kim Dorothy Ritsuko McDonald Zenobia Baxter Mistri Katharine Newman Robert M Payne Robert T Rolf and Stan Yogi The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang, 2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Words Matter King-Kok Cheung, 2000-02-01 In this age of rapid transition Asian American studies and American studies in general are being reconfigured to reflect global migrations and the diverse populations of the United States Asian American literature in particular has embodied the crisis of identity that is at the heart of larger academic and political debates surrounding diversity and the inclusion and exclusion of immigrant and refugee groups These issues underlie the very principles on which literature culture and art are produced preserved taught and critiqued Words Matter is the first collection of interviews with 20th century Asian American writers The conversations that have been gathered here interviews with twenty writers possessing unique backgrounds perspectives thematic concerns and artistic priorities effectively dispel any easy categorizations of people of Asian descent These writers comment on their own work and speak frankly about aesthetics politics and the challenges they have encountered in pursuing a writing career They address among other issues the expectations attached to the label Asian American the burden of representation shouldered by ethnic artists and the different demands of mainstream and ethnic audiences Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present The Oxford Book of Women's Writing in the United States Linda Wagner-Martin, Cathy N. Davidson, 1999 A sumptuous selection of short fiction and poetry Its invitation to share the passion of women's voices characterizes the entire volume USA Today

Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Kathy J. Whitson, 2004-12-30 Many women writers have secured a solid place in the literary canon while others have remained marginalized This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on roughly 70 women writers whose works are widely read in English and on some 20 related topics While some of the writers profiled are widely known others have not yet received as much attention And while most of the writers are from England and America the volume also profiles Chilean Brazilian Indian South African Australian French and German authors The writers selected are feminist in that their works have challenged traditional gender roles explored female oppression or critiqued patriarchal social structures In addition to providing biographical information the entries include interpretative summaries of major works Each author entry includes biographical information an extensive summary treatment of at least one of her works an list of her other major works cross references to related entries and a list of works for further reading What distinguishes this encyclopedia from the many other volumes addressing feminist literature or literature by women is the interpretative summary in each entry The volume closes with a list of works cited Entries are clearly written and are accessible to high school students and undergraduates

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature

The Ruptures of American Capital Grace Kyungwon Hong, Universality is a dangerous concept according to Grace Kyungwon Hong one that has contributed to the rise of the U S nation state that privileges the propertied individual However African American Asian American and Chicano people experience the same stretch of city sidewalk with varying degrees of safety visibility and surveillance The Ruptures of American Capital examines two key social formations women of color feminism and racialized immigrant women s culture in order to argue that race and gender are contradictions within the history of U S capital that should be understood not as monolithic but as marked by its crises Hong shows how women of color feminism identified ways in which nationalist forms of capital such as the right to own property were repressive The Ruptures of American Capital demonstrates that racialized immigrant women s culture has brought to light contested modes of incorporation into consumer culture Interweaving discussion of U S political economy with literary analyses including readings from Booker T Washington to Jessica Hagedorn Hong challenges the individualism of the United States and the fetishization of difference that is one of the markers of globalization Grace Kyungwon Hong is assistant professor of English and Asian American studies at the University of Wisconsin Madison
