Seventh Heaven Nina Murdoch, 1932 Seventh Heaven Nina Murdoch, 1930 British Boarding Houses in Interwar Women's Literature Terri Mullholland, 2016-10-04 Embraced for the dramatic opportunities afforded by a house full of strangers the British boarding house emerged as a setting for novels published during the interwar period by a diverse range of women writers from Stella Gibbons to Virginia Woolf To use the single room in the boarding house or bedsit Terri Mullholland argues is to foreground a particular experience While the single room represents the freedoms of independent living available to women in the early twentieth century it also marks the precariousness of unmarried women's lives By placing their characters in this transient space women writers could explore women's changing social roles and complex experiences amateur prostitution lesbian relationships extra marital affairs and abortion outside traditional domestic narrative concerns Mullholland presents new readings of works by canonical and non canonical writers including Stella Gibbons Winifred Holtby Storm Jameson Rosamond Lehmann Dorothy Richardson Jean Rhys and Virginia Woolf A hybrid of the modernist and realist domestic fiction written and read by women the literature of the single room merges modernism's interest in interior psychological states with the realism of precisely documented exterior spaces offering a new mode of engagement with the two forms of interiority To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott, 2001-08-30 Between 1870 and 1940 tens of thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the center of the publishing art musical theatrical and educational worlds Even more Australian women than men made the pilgrimage home seeking opportunities beyond those available to them in the Australian colonies or dominion In tracing the experiences of these women this volume reveals hitherto unexamined connections between whiteness colonial status gender and modernity Sold by the Millions Louise Lightfoot, Amit Sarwal, 2011-12-08 Australian genre fiction writers have successfully exploited the Australian landscape and peoples and as a result their books are today sold by the millions across boundaries They have created stories that are imaginative visionary and diverse They appeal to local and international readerships and most importantly are thoroughly entertaining thus making them a strong presence in the popular fiction bazaar Sold by the Millions Australia's Bestsellers is the first collection to concentrate on Australia's best selling material that forms the armchair reading of many Australians Leading experts of popular fiction provide introspective pieces on Romance Horror Crime Science Fiction Western Comics Travel Sports and Children's writing so that a wholesome picture emerges of the wide range of reading and research options available for scholars Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty first century The Delusion of Protection George H. Winder, Cluny Macpherson, 1931 The Forgotten Fifties John Murphy, Judith Smart, 1997 Some of Australia's leading historians present new perspectives on social and cultural life in the 1950s The 1950s is usually treated in the popular media as a metaphor for an Australia that was complacent monocultural banal and domesticated On the other hand historical writing about the decade has long been dominated by accounts of political and foreign policy conflict the Labor Split the Cold War and the seemingly endless long summer of Robert Menzies This collection assembles some of Australia's leading historians to present new perspectives on the 1950s Focusing on social and cultural themes they reveal a decade full of contradictions which belie the common simplistic accounts of the time Ranging from the education of the young Barry Humphries to the idea of an Australian identity in the lead up to the 1956 Olympics these essays also include the personal recollections of three leading historians providing a lively and critical insight into the Australia of the period Drawing out themes such as style sexuality modernism the suburbs travel writing and immigrant assimilation the authors excavate the experience of everyday life and the attitudes that characterised the 1950s They present a past that despite having shaped our lives continues to be disputed in contemporary Australia What American Owes Europe Francis Henry Gribble, 1933
