Somewhere to Here Stephen Scorer,2018-09-24 From somewhere to here is a collection of my second 50 poems my writing journey started after I became redundant from my job as a post person in March 2016 There is a wide range of topics that I have tried to cover these still include some sports poems and some on mental health but I have started to branch out and put a pen to paper whenever the urge strikes When I decided on making my own poetry book to which I mean from writing printing then putting it all together to make a small collection I also thought after reading so many different types of poetry books Just like taking life s many routes and paths so will my poetry books and if you are mad enough to become a fan you will take on my journeys This collection starts where my first collection finished so from May 2017 to October 2017 I managed to write these fifty poems If you were mad enough to follow my poetic journey the first fifty took me over a year to put together whilst this second fifty took half the time The Power of Numbers Schrödinger,Stilovsky,2019-10-09 In today s world the use of numbers grows by the day and we depend on them for so much This book contains a series of lists that contain information about numbers and their use in society They will be most useful to those with a quizzical nature but should be of general interest to all Schr dinger s cat was an infamous and cruel thought experiment dreamt up in the last century to expose one of the mistaken ideas current in science at that time Since escaping from the box Felix has taken up writing and in collaboration with retired water engineer Pyotr Stilovsky he has compiled this factual compendium The Poems of Optatian Linda Jones Hall,2024-01-11 For the first time the poems and accompanying letters of Publilius Optatianus Porfyrius Optatian are published here with a translation and detailed commentary along with a full introduction to Optatian s work during this period Optatian was sent into exile by Constantine sometime after the Emperor s ascent to power in Rome in 312 AD Hoping to receive pardon Optatian sent a gift of probably twenty design poems to Constantine around the time of the ruler s twentieth anniversary 325 326 AD To enable the reader to experience the multiple messages of the poems the Latin text is presented near the English translation with any related design close by Some poems laid out on a grid of up to 35 letters across and down have an interwoven poem marking key letters in the primary poem thereby revealing a highlighted image Some designs include the Chi Rho or numerals created from V s and X s to mark imperial anniversaries Other previously unrecognised designs seem to represent senatorial imperial military or bureaucratic motifs or to derive from coin images Shape poems representing a water organ an altar and a panpipe reveal their relevance immediately The introduction and commentary elucidate literary allusions from over 100 authors lines from Vergil Ovid Lucan Silius Italicus Statius and lesser known writers abound and mythological references mostly to the Muses and Apollo Optatian s prestige as an official in both Greece and Rome is well attested these poems mark Optatian as a fascinating writer of his time holding onto the classical past while acknowledging Christian symbolism Producing Women's Poetry, 1600-1730 Gillian Wright, 2013-04-18 Gillian Wright combines literary and bibliographical approaches to examine the work of five English women poets in the period 1600 1730 Whitman Edgar Lee Masters, 1968 The Life and Work of Adelaide Procter Gill Gregory, 2019-01-04 First published in 1998 this volume follows the life and work of Adelaide Procter 1825 1864 one of the most important 19th century women poets to be reassessed by literary critics in recent years She was a significant figure in the Victorian literary landscape A poet who outsold most writers bar Tennyson a philanthropist and Roman Catholic convert Procter committed herself to the cause of single fallen and homeless women She was a key member of the Langham Place Circle of campaigning women and worked tirelessly for the society for Promoting the Employment of Women Many of her poems are concerned with anonymous and displaced women who struggle to secure an identity and place in the world She also writes boldly and unconventionally of women s sexual desires Loved and admired by her father the poet Bryan Procter her editor Charles Dickens and her friend W M Thackeray Procter wrote from the heart of London literary circles From this position she mounted a subtle and creative critique of the ideas and often gendered positions adopted by male predecessors and contemporaries such as John Keble Robert Browning and Dickens himself Gill Gregory s The Life and Work of Adelaide Procter Poetry Feminism and Fathers considers the career of this compelling and remarkable woman and discusses the extent to which she struggled to find her own voice in response to the works of some seminal literary fathers
