A Kingdom of Their Own Joshua Partlow, 2017-08-08 The key to understanding the calamitous Afghan war is the complex ultimately failed relationship between the powerful duplicitous Karzai family and the United States brilliantly portrayed here by the former Kabul bureau chief for The Washington Post The United States went to Afghanistan on a simple mission avenge the September 11 attacks and drive the Taliban from power This took less than two months Over the course of the next decade the ensuing fight for power and money supplied to one of the poorest nations on earth in ever greater amounts left the region even more dangerous than before the first troops arrived At the center of this story is the Karzai family President Hamid Karzai and his brothers began the war as symbols of a new Afghanistan moderate educated fluent in the cultures of East and West and the antithesis of the brutish and backward Taliban regime The siblings from a prominent political family close to Afghanistan's former king had been thrust into exile by the Soviet war While Hamid Karzai lived in Pakistan and worked with the resistance others moved to the United States finding work as waiters and managers before opening their own restaurants After September 11 the brothers returned home to help rebuild Afghanistan and reshape their homeland with ambitious plans Today with the country in shambles they are in open conflict with one another and their Western allies Joshua Partlow's clear eyed analysis reveals the mistakes squandered hopes and wasted chances behind the scenes of a would be political dynasty Nothing illustrates the arc of the war and America's relationship with Afghanistan from optimism to despair friendship to enmity as neatly as the story of the Karzai family itself told here in its entirety for the first time

Journey into Islam Akbar Ahmed, 2007-08-30 Globalization the war on terror and Islamic fundamentalism followed closely by a rise in Islamophobia have escalated tensions between Western nations and the Muslim world Yet internationally renowned Islamic scholar Akbar Ahmed believes that through dialogue and understanding these cultures can coexist peacefully and respectfully That hope and belief result in an extraordinary journey To learn what Muslims think and how they really view America Ahmed traveled to the three major regions of the Muslim world the Middle East South Asia and East Asia Journey into Islam The Crisis of Globalization is the riveting story of his search for common ground His absorbing narrative and personal photos bring the reader on a tour of Islam and its peoples Ahmed sought to understand the experiences and perceptions of ordinary Muslims Visiting mosques madrassahs and universities he met with people ranging from Pakistan President Pervez Musharraf to prime ministers princes sheikhs professors and students He observed listened and asked them questions For example who inspires them What are they reading How do the Internet and international media impact their lives How do they view America the West and changes in society Ahmed's anthropological expedition enjoyed extensive access to women and youths revealing unique information on large yet often misunderstood populations Lamentably he found high levels of anti Americanism and anti-Semitism and a widespread perception that Islam is under attack from the West But he also brought back reason for hope He returned from his groundbreaking travels both impressed with the concerned kind nature of the individuals he encountered and invigorated with the vitality and passion they displayed Journey into Islam makes a powerful plea for forming friendships across religion race and tradition to create lasting peace between Islam and the West Fearless Eric Blehm,2012 Chronicles the life of Navy SEAL Team Six operator Adam Brown a man whose heroism and devotion still stand as a beacon to his friends and family even after his death in the Afghan Hindu Kush mountains in 2010 You Can't Read This Val Ross,2009-07-10 Wherever people can read there are stories about the magic mystery and power of what they read Val Ross presents a history of reading that is in fact the story of the monumental on going struggle to read From Enheduanna daughter of Sargon the Great the world's oldest signed author to Empress Shotoku of Japan who in 764 ordered the printing of one million Buddhist prayers from the story of Hulagu Ghengis Khan's nasty brother who destroyed the library of Baghdad to Bowdler and the censorship of Shakespeare there have been barriers to reading ranging from the physical to the economical social and political Written for children ages ten and up You Can't Read This explores the development of alphabets the decoding of ancient languages and censorship in Ancient Rome and modern America It's about secret writing trashed libraries writers on the run writers in hiding books that are thought to have magical powers and mistranslations that started wars It's about people from the American slave Frederick Douglass to girls in Afghanistan in the year 2001 who defied laws that prevented them from learning to read What do all these stories have in common They're all about how texts contain power and how people everywhere throughout history have devoted their wills and their brains to reading and unleashing the power of the word With lavish illustrations and an index this is history at its finest Kabul in Winter Ann Jones,2025-06-25 A sharp and arresting people's eye view of real life in Afghanistan after the Taliban Soon after the bombing of Kabul ceased award winning journalist and women's rights activist Ann Jones set out for the shattered city determined to bring help where her country had brought destruction Here is her trenchant report from inside a city struggling to rise from the ruins Working among the multitude of impoverished war widows retraining Kabul s long silenced English teachers and investigating the city s prison for women Jones enters a large community of female outcasts runaway child brides pariah prostitutes cast off wives victims of rape In the streets and markets she hears the Afghan view of the supposed benefits brought by the fall of the Taliban and learns that regarding women as less than human is the norm not the aberration of one conspicuously repressive regime Jones confronts the ways in which Afghan education culture and politics have repeatedly been hijacked by Communists Islamic fundamentalists and the Western free marketeers always with disastrous results And she reveals through small events the big disjunctions between U S promises and performance between the new democracy and the still entrenched warlords between what s boasted of and what is At once angry profound and starkly beautiful Kabul in Winter brings alive the people and day to day life of a place whose future depends so much upon our own
