nature of the impulses creating and shaping fantasy literature the problems of its definition and the reasons for its changing historical fortunes The dictionary includes cross referenced entries on more than 700 authors ranging across the entire historical spectrum while more than 200 other entries describe the fantasy subgenres key images in fantasy literature technical terms used in fantasy criticism and the intimately convoluted relationship between literary fantasies scholarly fantasies and lifestyle fantasies The book concludes with an extensive bibliography that ranges from general textbooks and specialized accounts of the history and scholarship of fantasy literature through bibliographies and accounts of the fantasy literature of different nations to individual author studies and useful websites Necrophenia Robert Rankin,2008-12-01

movements this is the third book in Robert Rankin's highly acclaimed meta Victorian series Comparable to Pratchett or Douglas Adams the Father of Far Fetched Fiction has pulled out all of the stops with this riotous tale of wicked women a dangerous detective and Darwin the educated ape Lord Brentford has a dream To create a Grand Exposition that will showcase The Wonders of the Worlds and encourage peace between the inhabited planets of Venus Jupiter and Earth Ernest Rutherford has a dream To construct a time ship powered by the large hadron collider he has built beneath the streets of London Cameron Bell is England's greatest detective and he too has a dream To solve the crime of the century before it takes place without blowing up any more of London's landmarks Darwin is a monkey butler and he also has a dream To end Man's inhumanity to Monkey and bring a little joy into the world Lavinia Dharkstorm has a dream of her own Although hers is more of a nightmare To erase Man and Monkey alike from the face of the Earth and to hasten in the End of Days Then there is the crime fighting superlady all those chickens from the past and the unwelcome arrival of The Antichrist Things are looking rather grim on planet Earth Rasmus P J Vanston,2016-11-04 Rasmus is a pitch dark satire and a gloriously cynical swipe at a television industry that perhaps well deserves it As funny as it is disturbing this is an ambitious State of the Nation novel which uses the hyperrealism of exaggerated reality to reflect back at us the often absurd and grotesque horror of 21st century TV and society In this dark tale of wrecked morality a visionary reality TV producer leads the public and his own competition to a point of corruption they never dreamed possible Along the way pets stampede celebrities are eaten and the world erupts in violence The story revolves around three central characters Rasmus the mysterious visionary Minty ambitious TV producer and wannabe first female Director General and Hugo affable but bumbling BBC Head of Vision How these characters interact ultimately determines the course of events and drives the plot towards its shocking conclusion Written in three parts the story is set mainly in London but also travels far and wide Russia China Africa Papua New Guinea and South Wales amongst other exotic locations Rasmus is an imaginative unusual and intelligent work that asks some difficult and pertinent questions about the world in which we live Rasmus is a must read for all who work in the television industry as well as all those with a concern about how and where both TV and modern British society are going and why Dive Bombing Bernard Ashley, 2012-05-03 Life is not easy for fifteen year old Charlie Peat He is living alone in London while his guitarist father is on tour abroad and his mother is in a care home suffering from the psychological after effects of a bomb explosion He has to cope with all the normal problems of everyday life while keeping up the pretence to his grandparents that he is not in fact living alone and worrying about his father touring in the notoriously unstable country of Trajanov where terrorism is rife And this terrorism is about to threaten Charlie far too close to home In this thrilling book Bernard Ashley skillfully interweaves Charlie s story and that of his father in Trajanov into a complex multi layered narrative which sensitively explores the effects of urban terrorism on young people today
