Representation Manon Tremblay, 2019-11-15 Political representation matters And representation requires participation voting joining political parties running as candidates acting as politicians Yet the election of openly LGBTQ people is a relatively recent phenomenon in the West Queering Representation explores long ignored issues relating to LGBTQ voters and politicians in Canada What are the LGBTQ electorate s characteristics and voting behaviours and what empowerment has it achieved through electoral systems How do straight voters view out LGBTQ politicians and what part do the media play in framing these perceptions What pathways to power do LGBTQ politicians follow Do they represent LGBTQ people and communities in particular and if so how is this role articulated And finally how do Canadian party ideologies shape LGBTQ representation The contributors to Queering Representation address these questions by offering diverse nuanced readings of political representation shining a spotlight on relations between electoral processes and LGBTQ communities Feminists, Feminisms, and Advertising Kim Golombisky, Peggy J. Kreshel, 2017-10-16 Women and advertising are both globally ubiquitous Yet advertising remains one of the most unabashedly misogynist heterosexist and racist industries This edited volume of original unpublished chapters is the first ever to offer explicitly feminist views on advertising Feminists Feminisms and Advertising provides feminist analyses of the historical relationships between the advertising industry and the women s movement in the United States Contributors consider the ways that advertisers encode race ethnicity gender and heteronormativity into advertising practices and messages exported around the world They further explore the ways that intersectional audiences such as women of color Latinas and lesbian and gay audiences decode reinterpret resist and subvert advertising With this book the editors and contributors address the present lack of feminist scholarship research knowledge or curriculum in advertising and begin a more honest dialogue about diversity and intersectional gender in the advertising academy as well as the advertising industry
