Sex Relationships An Anthology:

Sex & Relationships John P. Elia, Ivy Chen, 2005 Sex & Relationships John P. Elia, 1999-01 Sexualities and Relationships John P. Elia, Ivy Chen, 2010 Sex and Relationships John Elia, Ivy Chen, 2009-06-26 Sexualities and Pak, Sex & Relationships John Elia, 1998-12-01 The Material Culture of Sex, Procreation, and Marriage in Premodern Europe A. McClanan, K. Encarnación, 2016-09-23 This interdisciplinary anthology takes as its starting point the belief that as the material grounds of lived experience material culture provides an avenue of historical access to women's lives extending beyond the reaches of textual evidence. Studies here range from utilitarian tools used in Late Roman abortion to sacred magical or ritual objects associated with sex procreation and marriage in the Renaissance. Together the essays demonstrate the complex relationship between language and object and explore the ways in which objects become forms of communication in their own right transmitting both rather specific messages and more generalized social and cultural values.

Sex and Reason Richard A. Posner, 2009-07-01 Sexual drives are rooted in biology but we don't act on them blindly. Indeed as the eminently readable judge and legal scholar Richard Posner shows we make quite rational choices about sex based on the costs and benefits perceived. Drawing on the fields of biology law history religion and economics this sweeping study examines societies from ancient Greece to today's Sweden and issues from masturbation incest taboos date rape and gay marriage to Baby M. The first comprehensive approach to sexuality and its social controls Posner's rational choice theory surprises explains predicts and totally absorbs.

Lone Star Muslims Ahmed Afzal, 2015 Lone Star Muslims offers an engaging and insightful look at contemporary Muslim American life in Texas. It illuminates the dynamics of the Pakistani Muslim community in Houston a city with one of the largest Muslim populations in the south and southwestern United States. Drawing on interviews and participant observation at radio stations festivals and ethnic businesses the volume explores everyday Muslim lives at the intersection of race class profession gender sexuality and religious sectarian affiliation to demonstrate the complexity of the South Asian experience. Importantly the volume incorporates narratives of gay Muslim American men of Pakistani descent countering the presumed heteronormativity evident in most of the social science scholarship on Muslim Americans and revealing deeply felt affiliations to Islam through ritual and practice. It also includes narratives of members of the highly skilled Shia Ismaili Muslim labor force employed in corporate America of Pakistani ethnic entrepreneurs the working class and the working poor employed in Pakistani ethnic businesses of community activists and of radio program hosts. Decentering dominant framings that flatten understandings of transnational Islam and Muslim Americans such as terrorist on the one hand and model minority on the other Lone Star Muslims offers a glimpse into a variety of lived experiences. It shows how specificities of class Islamic sectarian affiliation citizenship status gender and sexuality shape transnational identities and mediate racism marginalities and abjection.
