Community Koichi Miyazawa, Setsuo Miyazawa, 2023-09-20 One of today s most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention The topic of crime prevention in the Urban Community was discussed at the 47th International Course of the International Society for Criminology ISC held at Chuo University Tokyo It was the very first time such an ISC meeting was held in Asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of Japanese and other Asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world Crime in urban communities is not an exclusively Western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world This makes an interchange of ideas between Western Eastern and Third World criminologists particularly important General characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency The existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort The Power to Arrest Robin S. Engel, Robert E.

Worden, Nicholas Corsaro, Hannah D. McManus, Danielle Reynolds, Hannah Cochran, Gabrielle T. Isaza, Jennifer Calnon Cherkauskas, 2019-07-06 This insightful volume examines key research questions concerning police decision to arrest as well as police led diversion The authors critically evaluate the tentative answers that empirical evidence provides to those questions and suggest areas for future inquiry Nearly seven decades of empirical study have provided extensive knowledge regarding police use of arrest However this research highlights important gaps in our understanding of factors that shape police decision making and what is required to alter current police practice Reviewing this research base this brief takes stock of what is known empirically about all aspects related to the use of arrests providing important insights on the knowledge needed to make evidence based policy decisions moving forward With the potential to better impact policy and programs for alternatives to arrest this brief will appeal to researchers and practitioners in evidence based policing and police decision making as well as those interested in alternatives to arrest and related fields such as public policy The SAGE Handbook of Global Policing Ben Bradford, Beatrice Jauregui, Ian Loader, Jonny Steinberg, 2016-07-14 The SAGE Handbook of Global Policing examines and critically retraces the field of policing studies by posing and exploring a series of fundamental questions to do with the concept and institutions of policing and their relation to social and political life in today s globalized world The volume is structured in the following four parts Part One Lenses Part Two Social and Political Order Part Three Legacies Part Four Problems and Problematics By bringing new lines of vision and new voices to the social analysis of policing and by clearly demonstrating why policing matters the Handbook will be an essential tool for anyone in the field
