

Her Voice

THE wild bee reels from bough to bough
With his furry coat and his gauzy wing.
Now in a lily-cup, and now
Setting a jacinth bell a-swing,
In his wandering;
Sit closer love: it was here I trow
I made that vow,

Swore that two lives should be like one
As long as the sea-gull loved the sea,
As long as the sunflower sought the sun,--
It shall be, I said, for eternity
'Twixt you and me!
Dear friend, those times are over and done,
Love's web is spun.

Look upward where the poplar trees
Sway and sway in the summer air,
Here in the valley never a breeze
Scatters the thistledown, but there
Great winds blow fair
From the mighty murmuring mystical seas,
And the wave-lashed leas.

Look upward where the white gull screams,
What does it see that we do not see?
Is that a star? or the lamp that gleams
On some outward voyaging argosy,--
Ah! can it be
We have lived our lives in a land of dreams!
How sad it seems.

Sweet, there is nothing left to say
But this, that love is never lost,
Keen winter stabs the breasts of May
Whose crimson roses burst his frost,
Ships tempest-tossed
Will find a harbour in some bay,
And so we may.

And there is nothing left to do
But to kiss once again, and part,
Nay, there is nothing we should rue,
I have my beauty,--you your Art,
Nay, do not start,
One world was not enough for two

Longer Poems:

Eight Longer Poems David R. Slavitt, 1990 David R Slavitt brings together eight poems that deal largely with the mind's relation to history, personal history and the history of myth and of empires. In addressing these two seemingly independent modes of thinking and remembering Slavitt reveals that they are in fact closely related and that they are both part of our poetic consciousness.

Selected Longer Poems A. R. Ammons, 1980-03-17 Readers already familiar with Ammons's longer mode in other books will welcome this new collection while those familiar only with the shorter poems will find their appreciation of his work both deepened and heightened. The Selected Poems 1951-1977 was described by one critic as an indispensable book. Selected Longer Poems is an indispensable companion to it. The distinguished poet A. R. Ammons once described himself as not so much looking for the shape as being available to any shape that may be summoning itself through me from the self not mine but ours. This availability has enabled his poetic genius to be at home in forms ranging from brief lyrics the best of which he brought together in The Selected Poems 1951-1977 all the way to poems of full book length.

Collected Longer Poems Hayden Carruth, 1994 For fifty years Hayden Carruth's poetry has been distinguished by the indelible presence of passion, compassion and radical philosophy. Collected Longer Poems gathers the poet's choice of his narrative work and poems in sequence including his epic on the nature of romance The Sleeping Beauty and meditative poems on the rural northeast that have made him the most accessible regional poet since Robert Frost. Our pre-eminent poet of improvisation within form Carruth's renowned technical genius is perfectly matched to his ear for spoken language and narrative structure. By turns caustic and hilarious his observations of that life, his own and his neighbors ring as true as his ear for native speech. Collected Longer Poems completes the two-volume Collected Poems begun with the publication of Collected Shorter Poems in 1992, a volume that was a finalist for the National Book Award and won the National Book Critics Circle Award.

Collected Longer Poems Wystan Hugh Auden, 1969 Collected Longer Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 2013-05-15 This is a companion volume to the Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth which was published in 1967. This is a companion volume to the Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth which was published in 1967. All of the long poems written over the past forty years are included: The Homestead Called Damascus 1920-25, A Prolegomenon to a Theodicy 1925-27, The Phoenix and the Tortoise 1940-44, The Dragon and the Unicorn 1944-50 and The Heart's Garden: The Garden's Heart 1967-68. As we read the long poems together and in sequence we can see that Rexroth is a philosophical poet of consequence who offers us a comprehensive system of values based on the realization of the ethical mysticism of universal responsibility. He is concerned above all with process, the movement from the Dual to the Other. I have tried, Rexroth writes, to embody in verse the belief that the only valid conservation of value lies in the assumption of unlimited liability, the supernatural identification of the self with the tragic unity of creative process. I hope I have made it clear that the self does not do this by an act of will, by sheer assertion. He who would save his life must lose it.

The Prosimetrum of the Íslendingasögur Brynja Þorgeirsdóttir, Stefanie Gropper, Judy Quinn, Alexander Wilson, 2024-12-16 Verse quotation is intrinsic to the literary style of the medieval Icelandic corpus of slendingas gur sagas of Icelanders one of the most important vernacular literary genres of the European Middle Ages The essays collected in this volume demonstrate that the combination of prose and verse constitutes a distinctive literary aesthetic and that in the medieval Icelandic literary tradition it was not a question of choosing between prose and verse as the vehicle for stories about the foundational generations of settlers on the island but of combining both modes to forge the unique literary form of the saga Verse quotation has always been recognised as an important aspect of the slendingas gur but to date the significance of verse to the aesthetic of the narrative has mainly been explored with reference to the sub genre of the sk ldas gur sagas of poets in which the proportion of verse to prose is at its highest The contributions to the volume analyse the slendingas gur as prosimetrum that is they treat the combination of verse and prose as a salient generic and aesthetic feature of this body of sagas The contributors are leading scholars in the field of Old Norse studies and their work represents current research trends in the UK USA Iceland Denmark and Germany Their innovative approaches will enable a better understanding on the literary mode of the corpus as a whole as well as producing fresh insights into the compositional habits of the anonymous authors of individual sagas
