Yeo, 2009-11-16 Plundering the Egyptians focuses on the study of the Old Testament at Westminster Theological Seminary from 1929 to 1998 More specifically it presents the lives and academic labors of Robert Dick Wilson 1929 1930 Edward Joseph Young 1936 1968 Raymond Bryan Dillard 1969 1993 and Tremper Longman III 1981 1998 These featured scholars were highly influential in changing the shape of Old Testament studies at Westminster through the introduction of novel scholarly tools and ideas that reveal methodological and theological development Their individual historical contexts scholarly contributions and interactions with historical critical scholarship are presented and analyzed Modifications in their respective methodologies are highlighted and often indicate significant shifts within the Old Princeton Westminster trajectory from an anti critical stance toward a position of openness toward historical critical methodology and its conclusions The implications of these shifts within Westminster are important because they mirror the current changes and challenges in evangelicalism today The Cumulative Book Index, 1912 A world list of books in the English language Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, 1906 Catalogue of the Works of William Shakespeare, Original and Traslated, Together with the Shakespeariana Embraced in the Barton Collection of the Boston Public Library Boston Public Library. Barton Collection, 1878 Serialization, Commercialization and the Children's Classics Amy Webster, 2024-12-12 An exploration of the serialization of children s classics by contemporary publishers this book digs into the impact of the practice and provides new ways of reading the corpus of British children s literature from the 20th century Amy Webster demonstrates how publishers select texts for their series which texts they omit which outliers are sometimes included and how a core group of works from the golden age of children s literature emerged The text also examines how texts are abridged and transformed from publisher to publisher through close readings of The Wind in the Willows and Alice s Adventures in Wonderland and how the repackaging of works within a series highlight issues and choices tied to key paratextual elements Analysing data through distant reading and close reading of series from Ladybird Longman Puffin and Walker Illustrated editions this book sheds light on how modern classics series are marked by variation and instability but also a reductive homogeneity Through her use of quantitative and text focused research Webster reveals how commercial motivations have created a gulf between the canonical concepts of the classic and how the term functions as a marketing tool in British children s publishing With notions of what counts as a classic compromised and complicated this book leads the call for a critical approach towards both the term classic and to reading children s classics that acknowledges how they are tied to the commercial enterprises of the children s book business The English Catalogue of Books [annual], 1892 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers Longman's Handbook of English Literature Robert McWilliam, 1891
