Looking At Welsh History:

Looking at Welsh History Arthur James Roderick, 1974 The Philosophy of Welsh History John Vyrnwy Morgan, 1914

J. E. Lloyd and the Creation of Welsh History Huw Pryce, 2011-05-15 This is the first intellectual biography of John Edward Lloyd 1861 1947 widely regarded as the founder of the modern academic study of Welsh history Indeed the compliment that pleased him most was that he had created Welsh history Published to mark the centenary of Lloyd s most important book A History of Wales from the Earliest Times to the Edwardian Conquest 1911 the study reassesses Lloyd s significance by setting his work in its multiple contexts Part One gives an account of his life with particular emphasis on his upbringing education and subsequent career as a historian viewed against the background both of efforts to give expression to Welsh nationhood through educational institutions and of wider developments in the professionalization of historical scholarship In Part Two the focus shifts from the biographical to the thematic and examines why Lloyd privileged the early and medieval Welsh past and how he depicted this in his 1911 History These chapters investigate key themes in Lloyd s interpretation with reference not only to previous accounts of Welsh history but also to the broader intellectual and scholarly context of his own time Through its reappraisal of Lloyd the book provides a case study of how the past of a small stateless nation was reconfigured at a time of self conscious national revival through deploying modern canons of scholarship that served to legitimize a new narrative of national origins It thus offers a fresh and distinctive perspective on issues of broad significance in modern European historiography and intellectual history Handbook for History Teachers W. Burston dec'd, Cyril Green, E Nicholas, A Dickinson, D Thompson, 2021-12-24 First published in 1972 Handbook for History Teachers is intended to be a general and comprehensive work of reference for teachers of history in primary and secondary schools of all kinds The book covers all aspects of teaching history among them are the use of sources world history art and history principles of constructing a syllabus and the psychological aspects of history teaching The bibliographical sections are arranged on three parts school textbooks a section on audio visual aids and finally books for the teacher and possibly for the sixth form It thoroughly investigates and critiques the various methods employed in teaching history within classrooms and suggests alternatives wherever applicable Diligently curated by the Standing Sub Committee in History University of London Institute of Education the book still holds immense value in the understanding of pedagogy Snapshots of Welsh History Phil Carradice, 2011-11-10 A fascinating collection of stories from Welsh history collected from Phil Carradice s popular BBC Wales blog gathered together for the first time in a book Among the incredible stories are The man from Clydach who invented a Death Ray The Welsh aristocrat whose parrot once bit Herman Goering on the nose The witch who cursed the launch of a warship at Pembroke Dockyard The battle that was won by a herd of cows These stories are part and parcel of Welsh heritage and make history interesting Snapshots of Welsh History Without the Boring Bits covers a wide range of Welsh history topics Written in Phil s unique easy to read yet elegant style these stories are funny tragic sad and hilarious Yet the one thing they all have in common is that they make compelling reading
