Looking Beyond The Mask:

Looking Beyond the Mask Nancy Brown Diggs, 2016-02-24 Looking Beyond the Mask focuses on the personal stories of the growing number of American women who despite vast cultural differences and sometimes because of them are married to Japanese men. Although the problems encountered in such marriages are similar to those found in any union, there are cultural implications that can exacerbate almost any of them. Potential areas of conflict are examined such as in laws, customs and manners, values, living conditions, religion, communication, sex and gender, and raising children. The book deals with meeting such challenges and attempting to look beyond the cultural masks to see the real people behind them. The women in question stress the importance of commitment, a flexible attitude, a strong sense of identity, a support network, a sense of perspective, and a sense of humor. They also reveal the benefits of these marriages, including a greater appreciation for Japanese ways and the opportunity to continually grow and learn. Based on extensive research, the book provides a new look at Japan from the unique perspective of those American women most intimately involved with its culture. Un/Masking

Laurette Burgholzer, Joyce Cheng, Sarah Hegenbart, Bethan Hughes, Judith Kemp, Christiane Lewe, W. Anthony Sheppard, Bernhard Siegert, Anja Wächter, Eleonore Zapf, 2021-08-15 This volume looks at masking and unmasking as indivisible aspects of the same process. It gathers articles from a wide range of disciplines and addresses unmasking both as a historical and a contemporary phenomenon. By highlighting the performative dimensions of unmasking, it challenges dichotomies like depth and surface, authenticity and deception that play a central role in masks being commonly associated with illusion and dissimulation. The contributions explore topics such as the relationship between face mask and identity in artistic contexts ranging from Surrealist photography to video installations and from Modernist poetry to fin de siècle cabaret theater. They investigate unmasking as a process of transition and transformation, be it in the case of the wooden masks of the First Nations of the American Northwest Coast or of the elaborate costumes and vocal masking of pop icon Lady Gaga. In all of these instances, the act of unmasking has the power to simultaneously hide and reveal. It destabilizes supposedly fixed identities and blurs the lines between the self and the other, the visible and the invisible. The volume offers new perspectives on current debates surrounding issues such as protective masks in public spaces, facial recognition technologies, and colonial legacies in monuments and museums, offering insight into what the act of unmasking can mean today. With contributions by Laurette Burgholzer, Joyce Cheng, Sarah Hegenbart, Bethan Hughes, Judith Kemp, Christiane Lewe, W. Anthony Sheppard, Bernhard Siegert, Anja Wächter, and Eleonore Zapf. Looking Past the Screen Jon Lewis, Eric Smoodin, 2007-10-22 A collection of essays illustrating new methods and theories of film history.
