Looking for Peace? Mary Ann Budnik, 1997-01-01      Guidebook for Confessors Michael E. Giesler, 2017-03-29 This guidebook was written to help Catholic priests appreciate better the beauty and power of Confession and to administer it more effectively to the faithful Beginning with the Gospel call to holiness for all souls it points out ways for confessors to serve the faithful by helping them to acknowledge their sins and to confess them sincerely Among other features the book includes Leading insights of classical moral theology on the nature of the human person including knowledge free will and responsibility Practical ideas on how to catechize and motivate people to use the sacrament of God's mercy more frequently Effective experience in giving advice to many different kinds of people old and young married and single penitents with special needs such as recidivists those with addictions or mental disorders and the scrupulous or lax Suggestions on helping penitents to make complete and sincere confessions especially in the area of personal and marital chastity Specific approaches to guide and support persons to live faith hope charity and justice based on real contemporary situations Three informative appendices which include leading quotes from the Magisterium on the Sacrament of Penance a description of censured sins from the Code of Canon Law and excerpts from the Holy See's Vademecum for Confessors The book draws ideas from the long and proven tradition of holy and effective confessors in the Catholic Church along with spiritual insights of saints such as John of the Cross Philip Neri John Vianney and Josemaría Escrivá In addition insightful quotations from the recent writings of Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI are offered      Faith Facts Leon J. Suprenant, 2004 Where did the Mass come from What is an annulment Where is heaven Is there salvation outside the Catholic Church In today's world Catholics must be ready at any moment to face unexpected questions about the teaching of the Church Faith Facts II is a valuable resource for anyone who needs answers on topics that are crucial to belief and evangelization Emmaus Road delivers another great resource on the Catholic faith It's a gold mine that helps save you time and effort it should be on every Catholic's bookshelf Z E ROMANOWSKY CRISIS Magazine      The One Year Devotions for Women Ann Spangler, 2012 Peace don't we all want just a little more peace in our lives Peace in relationships Peace at home and at work Peace from painful memories Release from pressures and demands that threaten to crush us Is there a way to find peace in all these areas What if we could build a moment of peace into every day of the year opening our hearts to the peace God has promised Wouldn't it be great to live with less fear and anxiety and with more confidence and joy The One Year Devotions for Women Becoming a Woman at Peace is a chance to spend time with God every day to breathe deeply and grab onto the kind of peace that only God can offer a peace far richer and more satisfying than anything we can hope or imagine Each of these uplifting devotions includes a key NLT Scripture verse a devotional reading and a suggested prayer for connecting with God      Do Your Best and Trust God for the Rest James W. Moore, 2013 You don't have to be perfect or even good just be faithful and then let God take it from there      A Fresh Look at Confession David M. Knight, 2013 David Knight was forty years a priest before he learned that priests don't hear sins in confession. What you are really revealing is your ideals, he says. The real you has a different set of ideals reflecting your heart instead of your lapses. This you abides with God. With these words, Father Knight reveals that A Fresh Look at Confession is unlike anything you may have read about the sacrament. He speaks about the heart of confession, its meaning and mystery, and why it is so necessary for authentic followers of Christ. This is deep theology explained in clear language. But it's also much more: Father Knight's moving, intensely personal account of his own journey as a sinner takes readers beyond theory and into the awe-inspiring reality of our complete redemption in Jesus, who does not just forgive but who takes away the sins of the world. From a varied background as missionary, teacher, pastor, professor, retreat director, and campus minister, Father Knight's ministry has come to focus on making mystical experience commonplace in conscious Christian living. Book jacket

Confession Adrienne von Speyr, 2017-03-22 In this second edition of her profound book on confession, which theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar calls one of her most central works, Adrienne von Speyr discusses the moral and practical aspects of this sacrament in great depth. The most complete spiritual treatise on confession ever written, the book covers conversion, scruples, contrition, spiritual direction, laxity, frequency of confession, confessions of religious and lay people, and even confessions of saints. The most intriguing element in von Speyr's understanding of confession, fully developed in this volume, is its trinitarian and christological basis. The Cross is the archetypal confession, and Christian sacramental confession is thus an imitation of Christ in the strict sense. Confession examines the enormous fruitfulness of this dogmatic basis from many perspectives, giving a wealth of suggestions that both the theological expert and the layman will find very helpful. Its practical applicability to one's own confession emerges from every page.

A Killer's Confession Karen Edwards, 2019-08-22 A mother's fight to bring her daughter's killer, Christopher Halliwell, to justice. I have lived every parent's worst nightmare. On what would have been my daughter's 29th birthday, Detective Superintendent Stephen Fulcher knocked on the door and told me my beautiful Becky was dead. Found buried in a shallow grave in a remote field, Becky had been brutally murdered. When Becky Godden Edwards was killed, her mother, Karen, awoke to a world where the truth was never guaranteed: where taxi driver Christopher Halliwell got away with murder, and the police officer who found her daughter was punished instead. This is Karen's story. Despite unimaginable tragedy, her love for her daughter has been unbreakable, from her despair through Becky's troubled teenage years to the agonising eight years when Becky was missing, and then the dramatic story of how a killer's confession led to a terrible discovery. The one constant has been Karen's determination to fight for Becky, tirelessly campaigning for the truth about what happened, to be heard, and for Halliwell to face the consequences of his evil actions. The murders of Becky Godden Edwards and Sian O'Callaghan will soon be the focus of major new ITV series A Confession, starring Martin Freeman as Stephen Fulcher and Imelda Staunton as Karen Edwards.
