process for creating a devastating revelation in a new serialization technique which is formulated while finding out Picasso has borrowed serial events from Chicago's historical past. His findings lead to the beginning of a better understanding of Picasso's formerly mysterious Cubistic World as he struck a lucky deal to save his Rock n Roll Dude Ranch while selling art in the Merrill Chase Chicagoland Art Gallery chain. Ivan reveals the explicit reasons of how he helped remove the Erotic Suite from the 347 Series Gravures Exhibit while discovering a surprise Chicago connection illustrating two Democratic Presidential Conventions of 1960 and 1968 silently selected by Picasso. You will marvel as he discusses the reasons explaining the heretofore unknown why Picasso gave the Sculpture Puzzle the Bizarre Etching Exhibit and the 100 000 Commission Check to the Art Institute of Chicago. Parks also divulges a curious set of parallel dimensions between the Daley Plaza Sculpture the Guernica Mural and a mock up of a St Valentine's Day Crime Scene Measurement Recreation which has never been examined or explored publicly before. He also explores the timely similarities in the recreations from the April 4 1968 murder scene used by Picasso for his own version of the day before and the day of the Memphis Motel Balcony Crime Scene about the murder of Dr Martin L King Jr. You will marvel at the intricate collection of evidence linking Picasso imagery to Capone Era Chicago Beer Wars events. He further connects other similar historical sneak attack and matching alibi models for the St Valentine's murders and aligns them with selected communist conflicts with fascist leaders matching Picasso Eras which Ivan implicates Picasso in stealing Chicago Connections for his seemingly unknown art subjects. You'll decide if the evidence in Parks's Crazy Chicago Cowboy Discovery Trail proves his findings or if Parks twisted Picasso's imagery into his own new Secret Chicago Connections. Either way the events took place just before Picasso drew his seemingly unconnected version of the infamous imagery.

From Paradise to Hell Marjorie Ann Reeves, 2013-10. It is 1844 when Alabama born Rose begins writing a journal. She has just reluctantly agreed to marry Nathan Flowers. The years pass and together Rose and Nathan have five children. A Chickasaw couple, kin to Nathan by marriage, lives with them and helps Rose settle in and raise a family. Rose, Nathan and their five children could have lived happily ever after but then came the War Between the States. The North and South found themselves divided and Rose is pained when two of her children join the Union while two others join the Confederacy. Her journal keeps her grounded if she continues to write perhaps she can make sense of what's happening. Living a normal life during the Civil War is impossible but Rose does her best to keep calm and care for the remaining members of her family. When the war is over America must rebuild and life is still not easy in the South. The war was difficult for the nation but it was also hard on individual families. This is the story of one such family who struggled to love each other despite differing beliefs.
