Looking Upwhile Lying Down:

A Grammar of Tshangla Erik E. Andvik, 2010 A Grammar of Tshangla is the first major linguistic description of Tshangla a Tibeto Burman language spoken in Bhutan northeast India and southwest China Written from a functional typological perspective it contains a wealth of illustrative examples both from elicited data and from spontaneously generated texts It is a truly comprehensive description including sections on phonology lexicon morphophonemics morphosyntactic structure clause concatenating constructions as well as discourse pragmatic features The volume will be of interest to language students and to linguists and ethnographic scholars seeking to understand the Bhutanese and South Asian linguistic situation The large amount of raw language data presented here make this Grammar of Tshangla an indispensable tool for students of Tibeto Burman comparative linguistics and morphosyntactic theory in general Found in Translation.
