Lord If:

Trust Larry W. Ellis, 2010-08-18 Trust is vital for living in these days I believe the sin of mistrusting God is the fountainhead of our modern malaise Imagine that God desires to take us humans to the place where each of us desires to go the place of trust The promises connected to trusting God are both innumerable and immeasurable I write this volume in hopes of spurring the believer who has settled for an uneventful life while claiming love and allegiance to the Lord I am in hopes that the person who is just going through the motions of religious life can catch a glimpse of what God has in store for him or her Most of us really think we are trusting God when in fact we are leaning on our own understanding This book will teach you the benefits and blessings of trusting God Larry Ellis from the Introduction

The Bible is a collection of religious texts or scriptures sacred to Christians, Jews, Samaritans, Rastafaris and others. It appears in the form of an anthology, a compilation of texts of a variety of forms that are all linked by the belief that they are collectively revelations of God. These texts include theologically focused historical accounts, hymns, prayers, proverbs, parables, didactic letters, erotica, poetry, and prophecies. Believers consider the Bible to be a product of divine inspiration.

The Christian New Testament is a collection of writings by early Christians, believed to be mostly Jewish disciples of Christ, written in first-century Koine Greek.

The Quran is the central religious text of Islam, believed by Muslims to be a revelation from Allah. Muslims regard the Quran as Muhammad's most important miracle, a proof of his prophethood, and the culmination of a series of divine messages. The Quran describes itself as a book of guidance for mankind. It offers detailed accounts of specific historical events and it often emphasizes the moral significance of an event over its narrative sequence. The Quran consists of 114 chapters of varying lengths, each known as a sūrah. Chapters are classified as Meccan or Medinan depending on whether the verses were revealed before or after the migration of Muhammad to the city of Medina. Each sūrah consists of several verses known as āyāt, which originally means a sign or evidence sent by God.
