Making Sense of Everyday Life Susie Scott, 2009-07-27. Student friendly introduction to the sociology of everyday life. Introduces in very accessible style the various theories used to interpret our everyday actions that on the surface of things might look mundane. Making Life Better James VanDenBurg, 2011-09. Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr once said: "A mind stretched by a new idea can never go back to its original dimensions." For a control freak like myself, this is no small matter. Making Life Better is an invitation to own our part of our making and embrace our unique opportunities to make our lives better. It's about making routine and daily choices of action, reaction, thought and feeling more profoundly connected to who we are what we desire and what's most important to us. It's an invitation to turn off our auto pilot setting and allow our sense of purpose, identity and direction to break into our lives with greater wisdom, clarity and intention. It's a recognition that a meaningful, fulfilling and happy life is really nothing more though certainly nothing less than a very long series of meaningful, fulfilling and happy moments. How we experience each of those moments is always completely within us. Decision Making near the End of Life James L. Werth Jr., Dean Blevins, 2008-10-20. My Life Christopher Abiodun Stephen, 2013-03-08. I feel that all that happen to man is pre-ordained in our GENES and that God does not make mistakes. Many are always called but only those who see the light are chosen and those that are chosen also select those that are known to them. They all started like me without money, gold or silver and so they are gods or lords. While some people move out of their countries and returned successful, some does not but I am glad that I moved out of my country and at least for now I am happy in a foreign
