Passing Down the Farm Donald J. Jonovic, Wayne D. Messick, 1991 Passing Down the Farm Donald J. Jonovic, Wayne D. Messick, 1986 Your Estate Matters Patti S. Spencer, Esq., 2015-01-13 Patti Spencer has learned everything there is to know on this subject and has written down a good bit of it in this book This is a tremendous help to individuals as they try to sort out their estate and tax planning needs Matthew J Creme Jr Partner at Nikolaus Hohenadel LLP Former President of the PA Bar Association When it comes to estate planning and tax law there s simply no one better than Patti Spencer She demystifies estate planning in a way that is accessible for all Known for her no nonsense style and humor this book is a must have for anyone making their estate plans or just trying to understand the process Samuel Bressi President CEO of Lancaster County Community Foundation I have read Patti Spencer s newspaper column on a weekly basis for several years now and never tire of learning more about estate planning and tax law Patti manages to take complicated issues and reduce them to their simplest form David Griffith Former Business Editor at Intelligencer Journal We don t intend to neglect our estate and financial plans but it is so easy to be overwhelmed with conflicting financial advice Your Estate Matters will bring clarity to those pesky rapidly changing tax laws and will provide you with the accurate information you need to properly manage your estate Your Estate Matters offers a practical down to earth approach that explains the ins and outs of estate planning tax savings and other issues that directly affect your family s pocketbook income tax living wills trusts prenuptial agreements college savings and retirement planning If you want to stay ahead of the curve are ready to plan your own estate have aging parents or have recently retired this is the book you need to read Holding Our Ground Deborah Bowers, Tom Daniels, 1997-03-01 Farmers who own or rent most of the private land in America hold the key not only to the nation s food supply but also to managing community growth maintaining an attractive landscape and protecting water and wildlife resources While the issue of protecting farmland and open space is not new the intensity of the challenge has increased Farmers are harder pressed to make a living and rural and suburban communities are struggling to accommodate increasing populations and the development that comes with them Holding Our Ground can help landowners and communities devise and implement effective strategies for protecting farmland The book discusses the reasons for protecting farmland and how to make those reasons widely known and understood describes the business of farming federal government farm programs and the role of land in farmers s decisions analyzes federal state and local farmland protection efforts and techniques explores a variety of land protection options including purchase of development rights transfer of development rights private land trusts and financial tax and estate planning reviews the strengths and weaknesses of the farmland protection tools available The authors describe the many challenges involved in protecting farmland and explain how to create a package of techniques that can meet those challenges In addition they offer appendixes with model zoning ordinances nuisance disclaimers conservation easements and other documents that individuals and communities need to carry out the programs

discussed Holding Our Ground provides citizens elected officials planners and landowners with a solid basis for understanding the issues behind farmland protection and will be an invaluable resource in developing techniques and programs for achieving long term protection goals Talking the Talk Adrienne Patrice Lamberti, 2007 The 1990s were a hurricane of change for American farming and the Beginning Farmer Center BFC was caught in the storm Today's successful farmer must learn modern professional communications to survive in a world of corporate farming globalisation and government over regulation This significant new book presents a cogent analysis of far reaching changes rocking the heartland of America Local Food Systems in Old Industrial Regions Jay D. Gatrell, Paula S. Ross, 2016-05-06 In recent years there has been an explosion of interest in local food systems among policy makers planners and public health professionals as well as environmentalists community developers academics farmers and ordinary citizens While most local food systems share common characteristics the chapters in this book explore the unique challenges and opportunities of local food systems located within mature and or declining industrial regions Local food systems have the potential to provide residents with a supply of safe and nutritious food such systems also have the potential to create much needed employment opportunities However challenges are numerous and include developing local markets of a sufficient scale adequately matching supply and demand and meeting the environmental challenges of finding safe growing locations Interrogating the scale scope and economic context of local food systems in aging industrialized cities this book provides a foundation for the development of new sub fields in economic urban and agricultural geographies that focus on local food systems The book represents a first attempt to provide a systematic picture of the opportunities and challenges facing the development of local food systems in old industrial regions Rural Development Perspectives, 1995 The Country Gentleman, 1922

The Films of the Eighties William J. Palmer, 1995 In this remarkable sequel to his Films of the Seventies A Social History William J. Palmer examines more than three hundred films as texts that represent revise parody comment upon and generate discussion about major events issues and social trends of the eighties Palmer defines the dialectic between film art and social history taking as his theoretical model the holograph of history that originated from the New Historicist theories of Hayden White and Dominick LaCapra Combining the interests and methodologies of social history and film criticism Palmer contends that film is a socially conscious interpreter and commentator upon the issues of contemporary social history In the eighties such issues included the war in Vietnam the preservation of the American farm terrorism nuclear holocaust changes in Soviet American relations neoconservative feminism and yuppies Among the films Palmer examines are Platoon The Killing Fields The River Out of Africa Little Drummer Girl Kiss of the Spiderwoman Silkwood The Day After Red Dawn Moscow on the Hudson Troop Beverly Hills and Fatal Attraction Utilizing the principles of New Historicism Palmer demonstrates that film can analyze and critique history as well as present it Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2001 The Mountaineer Grower, 1988 Farmland Dispossessed: Stories of Loss and Resilience Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-17 In the heartland of America where vast fields stretch to the horizon and rural communities have long been the backbone of the nation's agricultural heritage a crisis unfolded in the 1980s that left an enduring scar on the American landscape Farmland Dispossessed: Stories of Loss and Resilience delves into the human cost of this agricultural crisis exploring the devastating impact of farm loss on individuals families and entire communities Through poignant narratives and in depth analysis this book uncovers the emotional toll of losing one's farm the struggle to maintain a sense of identity and purpose and the lasting effects of trauma It also examines the broader implications of the farm crisis including the decline of rural economies the loss of traditional values and ways of life and the challenges of preserving rural heritage But Farmland Dispossessed is not merely a lament for a bygone era It is also a story of resilience and hope This book highlights the remarkable efforts of farmers and rural communities to overcome adversity showcasing the power of collective action the importance of community support and the potential for rural revitalization It explores innovative farming practices the rise of farmer led activism and the growing consumer demand for locally produced food as signs of a renewed commitment to sustainable agriculture and vibrant rural communities Farmland Dispossessed is a call to action urging policymakers consumers and communities to recognize the vital importance of supporting rural America It is a reminder that the health of our nation's food system and the well being of our rural communities are inextricably linked By investing in sustainable agriculture preserving rural culture and creating opportunities for economic growth in rural areas we can ensure that the heartland of America continues to beat strong for generations to come This book is a must read for anyone who cares about the future of rural America the sustainability of our food system and the preservation of our shared cultural heritage It is a powerful reminder of the importance of community resilience and the enduring spirit of the American heartland If you like this book write a review on google books

Siblinghood and Sociability in Nineteenth-Century Ulster Shannon Devlin, 2025-01-28 This book is an innovative exploration of nineteenth century family life and society The first study of its kind it uses the sibling relationship as a window into Irish society in the past Employing a creative genealogical methodology Shannon Devlin pieces together the lives of twenty five sibling sets from Ulster allowing for an exploration of power emotion and gender in the family She considers families from both Catholic and Protestant backgrounds and in urban and rural contexts shedding new light on the Ulster middle classes during a century of rapid social and economic change Through its emphasis on horizontal family relationships the book uncovers the lived experiences of individuals and reveals how the family could help navigate the social hierarchies and gendered power structures underpinning middle class society It complicates our understanding of family dynamics household formation and cultural performances of sociability and offers an exciting new perspective on aspects of the lifecycle marriage practices inheritance family finances and Irish middle class mobility Exploring the influence of brothers and sisters on everyday life Siblinghood and Sociability in Nineteenth Century Ulster provides a unique insight into the ways in which family loyalties and obligations intersected with personal reputation aspiration and ambition New Voices Tony
