Religion in the Egyptian Novel Phillips Christina Phillips, 2019-06-24 This is an in depth original survey of religion in the modern Arabic novel Tracing the relationship from the genesis of the form in the early 20th century to present Phillips provides a thematic exploration of the push and pull between religion and secularism as it played out on the pages of the Egyptian novel Through close readings of representative texts the book reveals the manifold ways in which Islam Christianity Sufism myth ritual and intertext have engaged in modern Arabic literature and culture more broadly Palace of Desire

Najīb Maḥfūz, 1992 In paperback for the first time Nobel Prize winner Naguib Mahfouz's bestselling Palace of Desire will be published to coincide with Doubleday's publication of Sugar Street the third and final volume of the Cairo Trilogy Samia Mehrez, 2010-01-01 A look at some of the raging debates in the arts in Egypt Modern Arabic Literature Reuven

Snir, 2017-06-02 The study of Arabic literature is blossoming This book provides a comprehensive theoretical framework to help research this highly prolific and diverse production of contemporary literary texts Based on the achievements of historical poetics in particular those of Russian formalism and its theoretical legacy this framework offers flexible transparent and unbiased tools to understand the relevant contexts within the literary system The aim is to enhance our understanding of Arabic literature throw light on areas of literary production that traditionally have been neglected and stimulate others to take up the fascinating challenge of mapping out and exploring them An Introduction to Arabic

Literature Roger Allen, 2000-07-13 An accessible introduction to Arabic literature from the fifth century to the present

Gender, Nation, and the Arabic Novel Hoda Elsadda, 2012-07-18 A nuanced understanding of literary imaginings of masculinity and femininity in the Egyptian novel Gender studies in Arabic literature have become equated with women's writing leaving aside the possibility of a radical rethinking of the Arabic literary canon and Arab cultural history While the woman question in the Arabic novel has received considerable attention the male question has gone largely unnoticed Now Hoda Elsadda bucks that trend Foregrounding voices that have been marginalised alongside canonical works she engages with new directions in the novel tradition Politics of Nostalgia in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2013-01-31

Explores the work of novelists including Naguib Mahfouz Abd al Khaliq al Rikabi Jamal al Ghitani Ben Salem Himmich Ali Mubarak Adonis Mahmoud Darwish and Nizar Qabbani to show how the development of the Arabic novel has created a politics of nostal Religion, My Own Mattityahu Peled, 2018-04-17 The Egyptian writer Najib Mahfuz has been acclaimed by many Arab critics as the greatest living Arabic literary writer and one of the pioneers of social criticism in literature in Egypt This work the only major book length study of Mahfuz's work traces his literary development as a writer and analyzes the thematic aspect of his work the relationship between individual and society Mahfuz's method of presenting this relationship in his novels and short stories is studied within the context of his Islamic world view Mahfuz's writing follows the models set by modern Western literature His unique contribution to Egyptian literature is that he made the novel and the short story a means of exploring indigenous problems Egyptian writers who preceded him paved the way for his achievements but none reached his mastery He enabled the Egyptian genius to express itself in literary forms new to Arabic Literary tradition The literary career of Mahfuz is marked by three distinct phases The first is the Pharaonic phase 1935-38 in which three historical novels were written The second is the realistic phase 1938-52 in which most of his great works were written including the Cairo trilogy The third phase began after a pause of six years in 1958 and is distinguished by symbolic writings and a deep concern for the individual in a changing society

A Matter of Fate Dalya Cohen-Mor, 2001-05-03 Cohen-Mor examines the concept of fate in the Arab world through readings of religious texts poetry fiction and folklore Offering 16 modern short stories as illustrations of her analysis she contends that belief in fate continues to play a pivotal role in the Arabs outlook on life and society

Jewish and Greek Communities in Egypt Najat Abdulhaq, 2016-02-18 In the years following Nasser's rise to power the demographic landscape and the economy of Egypt underwent a profound change Related to the migration of diverse communities that had a distinguished role in Egyptian economy from Egypt these shifts have mostly been discussed in the light of postcolonial studies and the nationalisation policies in the wider region Najat Abdulhaq focuses instead on the role that these minorities had in the economy of pre-Nasser Egypt and by giving special attention to the Jewish and Greek communities residing in Egypt investigates the dynamics of minorities involved in entrepreneurship and business With rigorous analysis of the types of companies that were set up Abdulhaq draws out the changes which were occurring in the political and social sphere at the time This book whilst primarily focused on the economic activities of these two minority communities has implications for an understanding analysis of the political the juridical the intellectual and the cultural trends at the time It thus offers vital analysis for those examining the economic history of Egypt as well as the political and cultural transformations of the twentieth century in the region

Folk Traditions of the Arab World Hasan M. El-Shamy, 1995

Arab and Regional Politics in the Middle East P.J. Vatikiotis, 2015-07-24 Three main themes are explored in this book first published in 1984 the first is the problem of religion and politics as a major and long standing preoccupation of Middle easterners or Arab Muslims themselves the second is that of the conflict ridden inter Arab and regional politics approached largely from a local rather than an international perspective the third deals with Egypt The book also enquires into the nature of rule and regimes in the Middle East the basis of authority and the arrangements for the organisation exercise and use of power Drawing examples from Egypt and the Fertile Crescent the emphasis is on the relation between tradition and politics historical evolution and state policy domestic factors and external constraints

Poetics of Love in the Arabic Novel Wen-chin Ouyang, 2012-06-20 Considers the Arabic novel within the triangle of the nation state modernity and tradition The novel is now a major genre in the Arabic literary field this book explores the development of the novel especially the ways in which the genre engages with a

The Politics of Love Rebecca Joubin, 2013-10-03 Dramatic miniseries are the primary arena for the expression of postcolonial Syrian culture and

artistic talent an arena that unites diverse aspects of artisanship in a struggle over visions of the past present and future of the nation As the tour de force of the television medium blossoming amidst persisting authoritarianism these miniseries serve as a crucial and complex artistic avenue through which political and social opposition manifests Scholars have tried to come to terms with a highly critical culture produced within attempted state co optation and argue that politically critical culture operates as a safety valve to release frustrations so that dissenters are less likely to mobilize against the government Through research fueled by a viewing of over two hundred and fifty miniseries ranging from the 1960s to the present as well as an examination of hundreds of press reports Facebook pages and extensive interviews with drama creators this book turns away from the dominant paradigm that focuses on regime intent When turning attention instead to the drama creators themselves we witness the polyphony of voices employing love and marriage metaphors and gender de constructions to explore larger issues of nationalism self identity and political critique At the heart of constructions of femininity are the complications that arise with the symbiosis of pure femininity with authentic national identity Deconstructing masculinity as political critique has been less complicated since it is not implicated in Western identity issues on the contrary illustrations of subservient masculinity serve to subtly denounce government corruption and oppression Miniseries from the 1960s demonstrate that the focus of the qabaday tough man on female sexuality comes from his own political alienation vis vis the state and is part of a vicious cycle of state violence vis vis the citizen In recent years and in particular after the uprising we can see the emerging definition of the true qabaday as one who does not suppress a woman s sexuality thereby allowing for full equality in relationships as the basis of a truly free society Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger,2014-04-08

The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world An Introduction to the History of Modern Arabic Literature in Egypt J. Brugman,1984 Hesperia N°4 Egipto Culturas del Mediterráneo Fundación José Luis Pardo,2006-05-17 Un an lisis riguroso de Egipto desde su rica historia antigua hasta su gran reto ante la modernidad Un nuevo espacio de reflexi n e intercambio de experiencias y conocimientos The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan,2017-08-01 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wa

I S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry

Nationalism and Liberal Thought in the Arab East Christoph Schumann, 2010-02-25 This book is concerned with the relationship between nationalism and liberal thought in the Arab East during the first half of the twentieth century It examines this formative period through reformist Islam Arab secularism and Arab literature and shows that liberal ideas were not entirely eclipsed by nationalism with the outbreak of the Second World War
