The Politics of Culture in Soviet Azerbaijan, 1920-40 Audrey

Altstadt, 2016-06-23 The early Soviet Union's nationalities policy involved the formation of many national republics within which nation building and modernization were undertaken for the benefit of backward peoples This book in considering how such policies were implemented in Azerbaijan argues that the Soviet policies were in fact a form of imperialism with nation building and modernization imposed firmly along Soviet lines The book demonstrates that in Azerbaijan and more widely among western Turkic peoples the Volga and Crimean Tatars there were before the onset of Soviet rule well developed forward looking secular national movements which were not at all backward and were different from the Soviets The book shows how in the period 1920 to 1940 the two different visions competed with each other with eventually the pre Soviet vision of Azerbaijani culture losing out and the Soviet version dominating in a new Soviet Azerbaijani culture The book examines the details of this Sovietization of culture in language policy and the change of the alphabet in education higher education and in literature The book concludes by exploring how pre Soviet Azerbaijani culture survived to a degree underground and how it was partially rehabilitated after the death of Stalin and more fully in the late Soviet period

Diary of an Invasion Andrey Kurkov, 2023-04-04 One of the most important Ukrainian voices throughout the Russian invasion the author of Death and the Penguin and Grey Bees collects his searing dispatches from the heart of Kyiv This journal of the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022 a collection of Andrey Kurkov's writings and broadcasts from Kyiv is a remarkable record of a brilliant writer at the forefront of a twenty first century war Andrey Kurkov has been a consistent satirical commentator on his adopted country of Ukraine His most recent work Grey Bees in which only two villagers remain in a village bombed to smithereens is a dark foreshadowing of the devastation in the eastern part of Ukraine The author has lived in Kyiv and in the remote countryside of Ukraine throughout the Russian invasion He has also been able to fly to European capitals where he has worked to raise money for charities and addressed crowded halls Fielding requests to write for every

English newspaper and to be interviewed all over Europe he has become an important voice for his people Kurkov sees every video and every posted message and he spends the sleepless nights of continuous bombardment of his city delivering the truth about this invasion to the world

Second Language Teaching and Learning through Virtual Exchange Shannon M. Hilliker, 2022-02-21 Virtual exchanges provide language learners with a unique opportunity to develop their target language skills support inter cultural exchange and afford teacher candidates space to hone their teaching craft The research presented in this volume investigates the role of virtual exchanges as both a teaching tool to support second language acquisition and a space for second language development Practitioners obtain guidance on the different types of exchanges that currently exist and on the outcome of those exchanges so that they can make informed decisions on whether to include this type of program in their language teaching and learning classrooms To this end this edited volume contains chapters that describe individual virtual exchanges along with results of research done on each exchange to show how the exchange supported specific second language teaching and learning goals

Ethnicity, Nationalism and Conflict in and after the Soviet Union Valery Tishkov, 1996-11-28 Valery Tishkov is a well known Russian historian and anthropologist and former Minister of Nationalities in Yeltsin's government This book draws on his inside knowledge of major events and extensive primary research Tishkov argues that ethnicity has a multifaceted role it is the most accessible basis for political mobilization a means of controlling power and resources in a transforming society and therapy for the great trauma suffered by individuals and groups under previous regimes This complexity helps explain the contradictory nature and outcomes of public ethnic policies based on a doctrine of ethno nationalism

Elective Language Study and Policy in Israel Malka Muchnik, Marina Niznik, Anbessa Teferra, Tania Gluzman, 2016-10-13 This book presents research on the instruction of two heritage languages and two foreign languages in Israeli schools The authors explore language policy and the way languages are studied from the point of view of students teachers schools and curricula Language in Israel is a loaded concept closely linked to ideological political and social issues The profound changes in language policy in the West along with two large waves of immigration from the Former Soviet Union and Ethiopia resulted in new attitudes towards immigrant languages and cultures in Israel Are these new attitudes strong enough to change the language policy in the future What do students and teachers think about the language instruction at school Are the teaching materials updated and do they address modern demands This book provides answers to these and other questions As well as describing the instruction of two heritage languages Russian and Amharic and two foreign languages French and Spanish the book also contains an extensive background on the immigration history and acculturation process of the speakers of each of these languages An in depth understanding of the case of Israel will serve as a guide for other countries contending with similar issues pertaining to the adjustment of language policies in light of immigration and other challenging circumstances

Everyday Linguistic and Cultural Practices of the Russophone Diaspora Ekaterina Protassova, Maria Yelenevskaya, 2024-11-15 The Russian language

has evolved into a lingua franca in post Soviet immigrant communities prompting an analysis of its use in different domains

Everyday Linguistic and Cultural Practices of the Russophone Diaspora explores the language maintenance of Russian abroad emphasizing the role of educational ventures and transnational communications facilitated by the internet This book researches specific aspects of migrant life including occupational practices homemaking family dynamics cultural engagement and linguistic hybridity and makes use of extensive empirical data spanning Soviet post Soviet and non Soviet migrant generations collected from European North American and Asian communities Relations between different migration waves are not always friendly but are mediated through online discussion forums which help to foster mutual understanding Like all migrants Russophones seek better opportunities by establishing new homes revealing intergenerational differences in lifestyle and adaptation This volume focuses on the emigration waves between 1990 and 2020 and points to shifts in values and migration expectations and reflecting on the evolution of diasporic communities and the dynamic adaptation of the Russian language

Authenticity across Languages and Cultures Leo Will, Wolfgang Stadler, Irma Eloff, 2022-11-10 This volume centres around concepts of personal and cultural authenticity as they play out in various contexts of foreign language teaching and learning worldwide The chapters cover a wide range of contexts and disciplines including both theoretical and empirical work together they comprise both a rigorous analysis of authenticity in language teaching and a step away from notions of native speakerism and cultural essentialism with which it is often associated Written by a group of scholars working across several continents the chapters offer diverse perspectives regarding the role language plays in processes of personal growth learning development self actualisation and power dynamics The book addresses the theoretical and philosophical nature of authenticity while remaining grounded in the teaching and learning of languages with authenticity viewed as a practical concern that guides our actions and beliefs The book will be of interest to scholars researchers and students of authenticity as well as foreign language teachers interested in the theoretical underpinnings of their practice

Cultural Mediation in Language Learning and Teaching Geneviève Zarate, Council of Europe, European Centre for Modern Languages, 2004-01-01 This project attempts to tackle several challenges to experience the variety of different teaching cultures as a source of innovation rather than as an obstacle to adopt a pluridisciplinary approach by introducing references taken from the social sciences in order to develop reflection on the role of languages in social cohesion to try and provide answers to a question hitherto rarely raised in the didactics of languages and cultures namely the place of cultural mediation itself CoE website
