

The Russian Federation

- ❑ The Communist Party came to power after Lenin led a revolution
- ❑ After Lenin's death, Stalin became the new Soviet leader in which he consolidated his power with purges (process of government purification by removing rivals)
- ❑ In 1985, Gorbachev began a reform program based on two principles: Perestroika (restructuring of economic and political life) and Glasnost (policy of openness under which the government increased its tolerance of dissent and freedom of expression)
- ❑ The Russian government is now struggling toward democracy and economic reform; it has a multi-party system

Russian Federation Toward Medium Term Viability:

Russian Federation, 1996 World Bank Discussion Paper No 310 Examines the economic performance of East and Southeast Asia and Sub Saharan Africa and attempts to identify some of the practical lessons that Africa can learn from Asia in order to facilitate industrial development and export growth Three country comparisons illustrate the critical nature of government policies such as exchange rate policy and the role assigned to the agricultural sector OECD Review of Agricultural Policies: Russian Federation 1998 OECD,1998-07-17 This study is one of the most comprehensive analyses and assessments of developments in Russia s agricultural policies since the onset of reform drawing on the OECD s well established method of calculating support from agricultural policies using Producer and Consumer Subsidy Equivalents

Russian federation Banco Mundial,1996 A Guide to the World Bank,2003 The World Bank Group works in more than 100 developing economies and is one of the world s largest sources of development assistance In 2002 the institution provided US 19.5 billion in loans to its client countries This guide reviews the organisation s history objectives and operations and looks at the five institutions that make up the World Bank Group the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IBRD the International Development Association IDA the International Finance Corporation IFC the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency MIGA and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ICSID

Fiscal Aspects of Evolving Federations David E. Wildasin,1998 Fiscal Management in Russia Philippe Le Houerou,1996-01-01 Presents contributions from more than 200 World Bank staff members and consultants on their experiences with participatory approaches to development activities The Sourcebook serves as a reference guide to participatory development featuring country case studies pointers for participatory planning and decisionmaking and ways of enabling the poor to participate It also discusses the role of nongovernmental organizations in this area Annexes include descriptions of methods and summaries of background papers Investments to Improve the Energy Efficiency of Existing Residential Buildings in Countries of the Former Soviet Union Eric Martinot,1997-01-01 In the 1990s the issue of human resource development in Malaysia has gained prominence in public and private policy circles Discussions center around training policy where there are concerns about acute labor shortages and around industrial development policy which strives to maintain a skilled and well trained workforce to increase competitiveness and attract foreign direct investment But policymakers have been forced to make critical decisions on resource allocation and to design policies without access to comprehensive training data especially from the private sector This usually results in supply oriented policies stemming from mismatches between skills supplied by public training institutions and those actually needed by industry This report attempts to fill this information gap on private sector training as an aid in formulating training policies that are more demand driven The report contains rigorous analysis of private sector led training and addresses the issue of whether firms in Malaysia underinvest in training Data came from the Malaysia Economic Planning Units 1994-95 survey and analysis of 2,200 manufacturing firms The survey elicited information on firm sponsored training and on a wide range of firm attributes including size industry local or foreign ownership equipment technology quality control systems markets and exports workforce characteristics wages and other compensation and production The data document for the first time the incidence and characteristics of training in Malaysian industry across firms of different sizes ownership and output profiles The data create an unprecedented opportunity to study the critical links between training new technology and quality control A joint publication of the World Bank the United Nations Development Programme and the Malaysia Economic Planning Unit

Governance, Decentralization and Reform in China, India and Russia Jean-Jacques Dethier, 2000-09-30 The papers in Governance Decentralization and Reform in China India and Russia which were presented at a ZEF conference in May 1999 deal with three critical aspects of governance in China India and Russia political reforms at the local level fiscal reforms in intergovernmental relations and legal reforms The volume collects contributions from 24 outstanding economists political scientists and legal specialists including Vito Tanzi Daniel Treisman Pranab Bardham Jean Dr ze Katharina Pistor and Kathryn Hendley Distorted economic and political incentive structures capture of the state by powerful elites and inoperative legal systems are factors that have greatly complicated the political economy of reform in these three large countries with heterogeneous populations Addressing these political and institutional issues is essential to designing good policies One particular goal of this volume is to bring together new analytical insights and empirical evidence on governance a new and growing field of research The volume is divided into three parts fiscal federalism decentralization and provision of local public goods and legal reforms Part I discusses the role of incentives in fiscal federalism The papers analyze the effects of different revenue sharing mechanisms between different levels of government in particular the effects on regional growth and inequality and the incentives that local politicians may have to provide public goods depending on fiscal arrangements with the central government In adapting their governance structures all three countries have been striving for increased decentralization But the theoretical literature suggests that in a decentralized setting second best solutions must prevail it is not possible to ensure incentive compatibility simultaneously with optimal allocation of resources and a balanced budget in providing public goods Part II discusses taxation and public expenditure management both as a political and as a budgetary process Two questions which the papers address are Does participation of stakeholders and accountability of public authorities improve economic and social outcomes Does better governance in the provision of basic goods such as health care and education improve equity While decentralization is often seen as a way to improve the quality of public services rule based governance is viewed as a safeguard against the arbitrariness of public officials and weaknesses in law enforcement

The five papers in Part III focus on the rule of law the role of the judicial system in establishing a rule based economy and the effectiveness of legal institutions during the transition from socialism to a market economy They present overviews of current legal reform issues in the three countries and discuss various conceptual approaches to addressing legal reform issues

Russia ,1997-01-01 Maps 4 folded sheets attached to inside back cover Kremlin Capitalism Joseph R. Blasi,Maya Kroumova,Douglas Kruse,2018-10-18 The first book to describe Russia s massive economic transformation for an American audience Kremlin Capitalism provides a wealth of data and analyses not previously available in this country The authors articulate the political and economic goals of Russian privatization examine the current ownership of the largest enterprises in Russia and chart the serious problem of corporate governance in the new private businesses Kremlin Capitalism is based on the only continuous study of Russian privatization throughout the Russian Federation from 1992 to the present The authors tracked down the story of the transition in the cities towns and villages of fifty of Russia s eighty nine provinces updating their findings after the June 1996 election The result is an up to the minute report of the largest property transfer in history and an analysis of one of this century s most significant economic transformations The volume also characterizes the position of workers in terms of unemployment wages union power and their changing role as employee shareholders What really happened when Russia privatized its economy The Kremlin brokered the initial struggle among different interest groups eager to claim a portion of Russian property workers managers the Mafia the old Soviet bureaucracy regular citizens entrepreneurs Russian banks and foreigners While competing with one another all struggled to free themselves from seventy years of Communist economic culture Four years after the process began have large companies learned to offer goods and services profitably and pay dividends to shareholders Individual stories come alive as the book explores problems Russians face in structuring a new economic system defining the ownership and governance of thousands of corporations one by one Russian economic practices are being forged in the heat of fierce political struggles between resurgent Communists and nationalists and old Soviet managers on the one hand and more liberal elements of its infant democratic system on the other Whether a few big conglomerates and the powerful banks and holding companies from Soviet days will dominate the new Russian economy to the exclusion of most citizens remains to be seen Many questions persist How will billions of dollars of capital be raised to retool restructure and reorient the heart and soul of Russia s economy Will open stock markets stimulate a new economic order or will that new order be imposed through strong state supports and subsidies What role will be played by shadowy conglomerates that are trying to shape a disorganized economy into something resembling the old Soviet system The authors note the paradox of a capitalism conceived designed implemented and evaluated by the Kremlin when one aim of reform is to allow market forces to play freely Kremlin Capitalism asks whether rapid privatization has catalyzed or complicated the transition to a more liberal political and economic system a question that will reverberate for decades

The State After Communism Timothy J. Colton, Stephen Holmes, 2006 The Soviet dictatorship was a strong state committed to dominating and transforming society in the name of a utopian ideology When the communist regime crumbled and the post Soviet countries committed to democracy most observers took for granted that their state structures would be effective agents of the popular will Russia's experience demonstrates that this assumption was overly optimistic This book based on a major collaborative research project with American and Russian scholars shows that state capacity strength and coherence were highly problematic after communism which had major consequences for particular functions of government and for the entire process of regime change Eleven respected contributors examine governance in post Soviet Russia in comparative context investigating the roots characteristics and consequences of the crisis as a whole and its manifestations in the specific realms of tax collection statistics federalism social policy regulation of the banks currency exchange energy policy and parliamentary oversight of the bureaucracy

Europe and Central Asia Region. Country Department III. Agriculture, Industry, and Finance Division, 1996 Post-Soviet Social Stephen J. Collier, 2011-08-08 The Soviet Union created a unique form of urban modernity developing institutions of social provisioning for hundreds of millions of people in small and medium sized industrial cities spread across a vast territory After the collapse of socialism these institutions were profoundly shaken casualties in the eyes of many observers of market oriented reforms associated with neoliberalism and the Washington Consensus In Post Soviet Social Stephen Collier examines reform in Russia beyond the Washington Consensus He turns attention from the noisy battles over stabilization and privatization during the 1990s to subsequent reforms that grapple with the mundane details of pipes wires bureaucratic routines and budgetary formulas that made up the Soviet social state Drawing on Michel Foucault's lectures from the late 1970s Post Soviet Social uses the Russian case to examine neoliberalism as a central form of political rationality in contemporary societies The book's basic finding that neoliberal reforms provide a justification for redistribution and social welfare and may work to preserve the norms and forms of social modernity lays the groundwork for a critical revision of conventional understandings of these topics Handbook on the Globalization of the World Economy Amnon Levy-Livermore, 1998-01-01 it offers expanded coverage of issues from pure international economics to certain aspects of political economy the present book is a fine work and certainly makes a valuable contribution to the growing list of books addressing globalization Students of globalization and last but not least practitioners and politicians as well as diplomats working in international organizations can learn from it Marjan Svetlicic Journal of International Relations and Development This authoritative Handbook provides a thorough account and analysis of the important issues relating to the globalization of the international economy The increasing interdependence of the world's economies has caused a breakdown in national economic boundaries and a freer access to goods services and labour This comprehensive book written by experts in the field addresses major issues associated with this international economic integration This reference work considers global growth including inequality saving foreign direct investment external debt and multinational corporations regionalization and globalization of trade such as the role of international institutions external economies of scale and trading blocs transition to market economies in Central and Eastern Europe the former Soviet Union and East Asia internationalization and integration of markets including the financial capital labour and agricultural markets global environmental and resource problems including transboundary pollution the implication of North South trade for natural resource depletion and environmental degradation and the impact of energy markets on global growth pollution and economic stability Fiscal Transition in Countries of the Former Soviet Union MissA. Cheasty, Mr. Jeffrey M. Davis, 1996-06-01 This paper reviews the uneven record of fiscal performance in the states of the former Soviet Union since independence Deficits have come down rapidly an important contribution to stabilization Given however the unexpectedly severe revenue decline and limited financing the stabilization was reached by sharp cuts in expenditure The cuts were abrupt and not focused on transition goals and the instruments used vitiated normal budgetary processes Hence benchmarks of fiscal success other than stabilization are elusive Government intervention and subsidies remain important social spending is inefficient and there is little evidence in the budget of restructuring
