Mary Gabriel,2014-10-15 The news of my brother s suicide rubbed me raw like sandpaper Joey and I were born on the same day eleven years apart and for me we would die on the same day eleven years apart destiny and my promise I waited nine years to grieve I kept my promise to myself for ten long years The grief from suicide is more traumatic than a normal grief My other promise was to stay sober in Joey s honor I failed sobriety quickly drinking to numb my life and no longer for fun and relaxation I wish I could say my brother s suicide and our alcoholism are the end of this memoir but my sobriety revealed I had mental health problems Unfortunately a correct diagnosis took years After sobriety I tried multiple self harm behaviors to bring about a sudden rush of adrenaline This contributed to my 9 year career of at least 30 trips to mental health hospitals Thank God I stumbled upon something to bring the miracle of life to me With suicide being more than double that of homicide in the United States answers are challenging to find The reader will learn how to work with someone who is standing on that ledge of life and leaning toward death as their solution Most often when those who have lost someone to suicide inform our clinical work it is by sharing their story in hopes of sparing others the torment that they experienced Dr Michael Arch PhD LCSW CT

Drop the Drama! Guerin Moorman, 2013-06-03 We all experience drama in one form or another Whether it s relational conflicts financial stress addiction anger overeating or any number of problems drama is not something that happens to us but something that happens within us In whatever form we experience it drama is ultimately the internal dialogue of wrestling against what is Drop the Drama From Drama Addiction to Simply Inspired Living asserts that we become drama addicts emotionally reacting to life recreating life stories based on a limited understanding of who we really are In an approach that transcends all spiritual paths Drop the Drama takes an alternative view of the ancient story of Adam and Eve challenging our traditional ways of viewing God self the nature of reality and ultimately revealing a new way of Simply Inspired Living for all humanity Explore the root cause of suffering The Drama Mind Expose the symptoms of the Drama Mind and how it cloaks itself from our awareness Drop the cycles of Shame Blame and The Drama Game Discover The Quest questions found in the story of Adam and Eve leading us out of drama and back to Simply Inspired Living Drop the Drama is not about providing more factual knowledge for the mind or getting motivated to achieve certain results in life It is about uncovering the stories we create the discovery of who we really are and unleashing a life that is simply inspiring Are you ready to Drop the Drama

Be Free From Fear Denise Lorenz,2013-11-15 Do you have one or more fears in your life that are holding you back from doing something you need or want to do Do you feel like no one has ever experienced such strong fear before Does it seem that you have no choice but to allow your fear to control what you can do where you can go or even how much you are allowed to attempt No Fear may have been a popular brand of clothing but it doesn't describe how most of us live All of us have experienced fear and many of us live our lives gripped or controlled by fear on many different levels There are so many scary aspects of life that we have come to accept fear as a normal and expected part of it But is that the kind of life that God intended for us to have Is it even possible to live a lifestyle marked by confidence and courage The author shows with examples that living a life of conquered fear is not only possible with God it can be a slam dunk The Lady of LA Sunny Blue,2024-09-16 The Chinese Ladys of Los Angeles by Sunny Blue is about 25 Chinese American women from different countries who come to the United States to pursue the American dream They learn and grow in the midst of confusion and suffering refine their personalities in the midst of moral and legal conflicts and walk out of their own paths in the pursuit of love and money The Nature of Fear Daniel T. Blumstein,2020-09-08 An Open Letters Review Best Book of the Year A leading expert in animal behavior takes us into the wild to better understand and manage our fears Fear honed by millions of years of natural selection kept our ancestors alive Whether by slithering away curling up in a ball or standing still in the presence of a predator humans and other animals have evolved complex behaviors in order to survive the hazards the world presents But despite our evolutionary endurance we still have much to learn about how to manage our response to danger For more than thirty years Daniel Blumstein has been studying animals fear responses His observations lead to a firm conclusion fear preserves security but at great cost A foraging flock of birds expends valuable energy by quickly taking flight when a raptor appears And though the birds might successfully escape they leave their food source behind Giant clams protect their valuable tissue by retracting their mantles and closing their shells when a shadow passes overhead but then they are unable to photosynthesize losing the capacity to grow Among humans fear is often an understandable and justifiable response to sources of threat but it can exact a high toll on health and productivity Delving into the evolutionary origins and ecological contexts of fear across species The Nature of Fear considers what we can learn from our fellow animals from successes and failures By observing how animals leverage alarm to their advantage we can develop new strategies for facing risks without panic Blinded by Fear Jill Loree,2020-03-09 It's an error to think that becoming aware of our fears of turning towards them and facing them in the light will give them more power Yet too often we turn a blind eye hoping to avoid something unpleasant In truth it s not awareness of our fears that causes us problems but our fearful attitude about even looking at them By not facing our fears we keep fighting the parts of ourselves that happen to be in fear right now We cramp up our whole being including our bodies bracing ourselves against feelings of fear In this collection of insights fear is illuminated from many perspectives Because it s only by bringing our fears into the fresh air of our conscious awareness that they lose their terrible roar www.phoenesse.com Smoke and Mirrors Stephanie Urso Spina,2000-10-18 Many of our countryOs children face daily a threat to their personal safety and well being As school boards law enforcement officials and policymakers continue to look for ways to stop youth violence in urban and suburban schools not enough attention is paid to eradicating the socioeconomic and cultural conditions that give rise to these acts In this timely and thought provoking collection seasoned educators and cultural theorists emphasize this connection between youth violence and the realities faced by many children poverty racism unequal opportunity and the mediaOs glorification of violence My Left Arm Velynn Saunders,2012-04-05 Velynn Saunders originally from Philadelphia Pennsylvania has been writing poems since the age of ten years old She loves the spoken word and inspiring teenagers and young adults to pursue their dreams regardless of their circumstances She feels any word not spoken and not shared whether written or verbally leaves room for fear prejudices and mistakes like drowning in your own righteousness The poems written are different experiences that she experienced herself or through others that have crossed her path Writing poems helped to free to heal to renew and to let others know that if she has overcome these experiences anyone can She lives in Fredericksburg Virginia and has three children She has overcome her fears by publishing her first writings Let s have a moot
