Sacred Connections Stories Of Adoption:

Sacred Connections Mary Ann Koenig, 2008 Sacred Connections Ann Koenig, Niki Berg, 2001-02-27 Personal sagas of adoption's particular issues and experiences fill this thought provoking look at 25 adoptive families written by a prominent expert who was an early champion of open adoption Clinical psychologist Mary Ann Koenig recounts real life stories of adoptees and their relationships with both their birth and adoptive parents Anyone who is part of an adoptive family or is contemplating adopting a child is sure to learn from the circumstances told in these stories and derive enormous inspiration from the triumphs and insights of these ordinary but quite extraordinary relationships Essays are graced by vintage and contemporary photographs Dr Mary Ann Koenig an adoptee herself has counseled adoptees birth parents and adoptive parents for more than twenty years Niki Berg's photographs have appeared in Ms and Smithsonian Creative Arts Therapies Approaches in Adoption and Foster Care Donna J. Betts, 2003 Creative arts therapists and others who work with children in counseling nursing teaching and related fields will find insights on the use of creative arts therapy with adopted children and children in foster care here Theoretical perspectives and psychological constructs of adoption and foster care are described and approaches to treatment including art drama music play and sand therapies are presented in case study format An entire section is devoted to transcultural and transracial issues Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com International Korean Adoption Kathleen Ja Sook Bergquist, 2007 They came to Korea to save children from want or from the shame of illegitimacy to fill the empty arms of couples to lead small souls into evangelical Christianity Whatever their motives and methods a relatively small number of people facilitated a massive international and trans racial adoption system that changed thousands of lives In this multidisciplinary study researchers examine what happened to the birth mothers the children and the adoptive families involved along with the non governmental and governmental agencies that acquired powerful positions in choosing who went who stayed who got and who went without Contributors examine the adoptions from the Korean side the adjustment issues of young adults who were adopted ethnic identity marketing of adoption services representations of the adopted in popular Korean culture and the consequences of failures This should serve as a model for studies of other instances of mass international adoptions Growing in the Dark

Janine M. Baer, 2004-05-28 Generations of adults who were adopted as children have been kept in the dark about their original identities The law sealing birth records passed in 1935 in California during the Great Depression swept adoptions emotional complexities under the rug and made it possible to keep adoption itself a secret Reflecting extensive archival research and written for general audiences as well as professionals Growing in the Dark Adoption Secrecy and Its Consequences takes you through California's early adoption laws the sealing of records in the era of baby seller Georgia Tann and the various consequences of this policy as they unfolded throughout the 20th century WHAT REVIEWERS HAVE SAID articulate easy to read and filled with real facts concerning sealed records Jean Brown adoptee If you work or live with

Internationally adopted persons confront multiple challenges in constructing their identities This study of the narrative burden of self looks at and interprets the dynamic process in which internationally adopted people develop coordinate and manage their sense of self identity and cultural racial personhood Drawing on the theory of the Coordinated Management of Meaning CMM the study focuses on their use of orphaning and adoption stories to most skillfully position and tell one s origin story in concert with one s internal sense of self and the pressures and forces found in interpersonal and intercultural dialogue The research reveals how internationally adopted people develop and demonstrate varying levels of game mastery in managing societal scripts and oppressive frames of stigma Through this game mastery the research brings to view how the participants have reflexively learned to claim ownership of their stories and develop a sense of agency while fashioning self empowering narratives out of the resources of their personal root journeys to better manage frame and coordinate the meaning of their stories across cultural and interpersonal boundaries A. Charles Elliot Fox,1924 Motherhood Online Michelle Moravec,2011-05-25 It may take a village to raise a child but increasingly that means a virtual village While the media may focus on the so called mommy wars and babyrazzi follow every move of celebrity moms millions of mothers world wide are creating online communities These mommy groups provide an alternative context for understanding how women construct modern motherhood together Motherhood Online explores the multifaceted lives that moms live online Ranging from longitudinal studies to focused explorations of identity and the newest community context mommy blogs this book documents the millions of mommies who have found an outlet online Whether centered on region religion race or something else altogether these communities of mothers are creating a new space for mom and allowing many women to maintain a grasp however tenuous on sanity in this crazy making world of modern motherhood Patriation and Its Consequences Lois Harder,Steve Patten,2015-06-17 Few moments in Canadian history are as intriguing as the political battle between Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau and the Gang of Eight provincial premiers who opposed his plans to patriate Canada's constitution from Britain This volume revisits these constitutional negotiations including the personalities visions and political struggles that shaped the resulting constitutional agreement Offering fresh perspectives on the politics of this key moment in Canadian history it focuses on the players behind the patriation process including First Nations and feminist activists who helped shape Canada's new constitution Patriation and Its Consequences also explores the long shadow of patriation including the alienation of Quebec the character of Canadian federalism Indigenous constitutionalism and Aboriginal treaty rights and the struggle to ensure gender equality rights in Canada ohpikinâwasowin / Growing a Child Leona Makokis,Ralph Bodor,Avery Calhoun,Stephanie Tyler,2020-08-26T00:00:00Z Western theory and practice are over represented in child welfare services for Indigenous peoples not the other way around Contributors to this collection invert the long held colonial relationship between Indigenous peoples and systems of child welfare in Canada By understanding the problem as the prevalence of the Western universe in child welfare services rather than Indigenous peoples efforts to understand and support Indigenous children and families are fundamentally transformed Child welfare for Indigenous peoples must be informed and guided by Indigenous practices and understandings Privileging the iyiniw First people people of the land universe leads to reinvigorating traditional knowledges practices and ceremonies related to children and families that have existed for centuries The chapters of ohpikin wasowin Growing a Child describe wisdom seeking journeys and service provision changes that occurred in Treaty 6 Treaty 7 and Treaty 8 territory on Turtle Island Many of the teachings are nehiyaw Cree and some are from the Blackfoot people Taken together this collection forms a whole related to the Turtle Lodge Teachings which expresses nehiyaw stages of development and works to undo the colonial trappings of Canada s current child welfare system A Family's Embrace

Radicals in Their Own Time explores the lives of five Americans with lifetimes spanning four hundred years who agitated for greater freedom in America Every generation has them individuals who speak truth to power and crave freedom from arbitrary authority This book makes two important observations in discussing Roger Williams Thomas Paine Elizabeth Cady Stanton W E B Du Bois and Vine Deloria Jr First each believed that government must broadly tolerate individual autonomy Second each argued that religious orthodoxy has been a major source of society s ills and all endured serious negative repercussions for doing so The book challenges Christian orthodoxy and argues that part of what makes these five figures compelling is their willingness to pay the price for their convictions much to the lasting benefit of liberty and equal justice in America
