

The Earth, she cries
She weeps for her children
They tear her apart
They tear each other apart
Forgotten ancient truths
We are not solitary
We are not separate
We are all connected by the web of love that binds us all binds us to each other binds us to Mother Earth
What we do to the Earth is also done to ourselves
We are connected
We are one

Sacred Differences Poems For Mother Earth:

Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke, 2008 This study consists of two parts The first part offers an overview of feminism s theory of differences The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism s different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women s experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World Religious Diversity and Children's Literature Connie R. Green, Sandra Brennehan

Oldendorf, 2011-05-01 This book is an invaluable resource for enabling teachers religious educators and families to learn about religious diversity themselves and to teach children about both their own religion as well as the beliefs of others The traditions featured include indigenous beliefs throughout the world Native American spirituality Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism Islam Sikhism and other beliefs such as Bah Unitarian Universalism Humanism and Atheism Each chapter highlights a specific religion or spiritual tradition with a brief discussion about major beliefs misconceptions sacred texts and holy days or celebrations This summary of each tradition is followed by extensive annotated recommendations for children s and adolescent literature as well as suggested teaching strategies The recommended literature includes informational books traditional religious stories and fiction with religious themes Teachers religious educators and family members will find the literature from these genres to be invaluable tools for bridging the religious experience of the child with that of the global society in which they live Time and Nature in the Poetry of Niyi Osundare Chukwunwike Anolue, 2024-08-02 This book provides an ecocritical analysis of the poetry of the famous Nigerian poet Niyi Osundare It interrogates the intricate interface between time and nature in 11 of Osundare s defining poetry collections This is a book of postcolonial ecocriticism from an African perspective It brings together the ecocritical theory of animism and theories of geologic time in the discussion of Osundare s poetry Osundare shows that animism has a lot to offer in enriching human understanding of the ecosystem And while he eloquently catalogues problems undermining the health of the earth in this age of the Anthropocene and the Capitalocene in his poetry he also holds on to the hope of a better future

The book concludes that Osundare's optimism is what informs his use of poetry to press humankind to rise to the duty of salvaging the environment. Deploying an interdisciplinary approach that stretches across the fields of literature, religion, geology, physics, economics, and anthropology, this book will be an important read for those looking for fresh ways to understand Osundare's poetry and African nature writing. African Literature, Mother Earth and Religion Enna Sukutai Gudhlanga, 2022-03-15. This book is a collection of essays that explore the intersection of Earth, Gender, and Religion in African literary texts. It examines cultural, religious, theological, and philosophical traditions and their construction of perspectives and attitudes about Earth, keeping, and gender. This publication is critical given the current global environmental crisis and its impact on African and global communities. The book is multidisciplinary in approach, literary, environmental, theological, and sociological, exploring the intersection of African creative work, religion, and the environment in their construction of Earth and gender. It presents how the gendered interconnectedness of the natural environment with its broad spirituality and deep identification with the woman features prominently in the myths, folklores, legends, rituals, sacred songs, and incantations that are explored in this collection. Both male and female writers in the collection laud and accept woman's enduring motif as worker, symbol, and guardian of the environment. This interconnectedness mirrors the importance of the environment for the survival of both human and non-human components of Mother Earth. The ideology of women's agency is emphasised and reinforced by ecofeminist theologians, namely those viewing African women as active agents working closely with the environment and not as subordinates. In the context of the environmental crisis, the nurturing role of women should be bolstered, and the rich African traditions that conserved the environment preserved. The book advocates the re-engagement of women, particularly their knowledge and conservation techniques, and how these can become reservoirs of dying traditions. This volume offers recorded traditions in African literary texts, thereby connecting gender, religion, and the environment, and helpful perspectives in Earth-keeping. From Here to Diversity Clara Sarmiento, 2010-08-11. From Here to Diversity: Globalization and Intercultural Dialogues sees interculturalism as movement, transit, travel, and the dynamics between cultures. Contemporary intercultural travel is a global journey, a circumnavigation at the speed of light that underwrites all the comings and goings, the departures and arrivals, the transmissions and receptions that are implicit in this title. Hence, From Here to Diversity examines the motivations, characteristics, and implications of cultural interactions in their perpetual movement, devoid of spatial or temporal borders, in a dangerous but stimulating indefinable of limits. In the contemporary intercultural dialogue, new voices are making themselves heard as valuable sources of study: the voices of women, non-occidentals, the non-powerful, forgotten narratives of a past that was as intercultural as the present, after all, what is colonialism other than a perverse form of interculturality? Global entertainment, tourism, oral literature, diaries, mythical narratives, the cinema, ethnography, and new teachings among so many others. Because this project is also intercultural at its source and subject, From Here to Diversity: Globalization and Intercultural Dialogues adds to the coherence of the project by including contributions from the most wide ranging backgrounds and nationalities without fear of the alterity that after all we propose to study

Holy Envy Maeera Shreiber, 2022-11-15

What is between us and the Christians is a deep dark affair which will go for another hundred generations

Amos Oz

Judas Among the great social shifts of the post World War II era is the unlikely sea change in Jewish Christian relations

We read each other's scriptures and openly discuss differences as well as similarities

Yet many such encounters have become rote and predictable

Powerful emotions stirred up by these conversations are often dismissed or ignored

Demonstrating how such emotions as shame envy and desire can inform these encounters

Holy Envy Writing in the Jewish Christian Borderzone charts a new way of thinking about interreligious relations

Moreover by focusing on modern and contemporary writers novelists and poets who traffic in the volatile space between Judaism and Christianity the book calls attention to the creative implications of these intense encounters

While recognizing a long overdue need to address a fundamentally Christian narrative underwriting twentieth century American verse Holy Envy does more than represent Christianity as an aesthetically coercive force or as an adversarial other

For the book also suggests how literature can excavate an alternative interreligious space at once risky and generative

In bringing together recent accounts of Jewish Christian relations affect theory and poetics Holy Envy offers new ways into difficult and urgent conversations about interreligious encounters

Holy Envy is sure to engage readers who are interested in literature religion and above all interfaith dialogue

Landscape, Nature, and the Sacred in Byzantium Veronica della Dora, 2016-02-04

Nature is as much an idea as a physical reality

By placing nature within Byzantine culture and within the discourse of Orthodox Christian thought and practice Landscape Nature and the Sacred in Byzantium explores attitudes towards creation that are utterly and fascinatingly different from the modern

Drawing on Patristic writing and on Byzantine literature and art the book develops a fresh conceptual framework for approaching Byzantine perceptions of space and the environment

It takes readers on an imaginary flight over the Earth and its varied topographies of gardens and wilderness mountains and caves rivers and seas and invites them to shift from the linear time of history to the cyclical time and spaces of the sacred the time and spaces of eternal returns and revelations

The Serpent and the Fire Jerome Rothenberg, 2024-10-22 Jerome Rothenberg s final anthology an experiment in omni-poetics with Javier Taboada reaches into the deepest origins of the Americas north and south to redefine America and its poetries

The Serpent and the Fire breaks out of deeply entrenched models that limit American literature to work written in English within the present boundaries of the United States. Editors Jerome Rothenberg and Javier Taboada gather vital pieces from all parts of the Western Hemisphere and the breadth of European and Indigenous languages within a unique range of cultures and languages going back several millennia, an experiment in what the editors call an American omnipoetics. The Serpent and the Fire is divided into four chronological sections from early pre-Columbian times to the immediately contemporary and five thematic sections that move freely across languages and shifting geographical boundaries to underscore the complexities, conflicts, contradictions, and continuities of the poetry of the Americas. The book also boasts contextualizing commentaries to connect the poets and poems in dialogue across time and space.
