Not the Girl Next Door Charlotte Chandler, 2012-12-11 As Charlotte Chandler did so well in her previous biographies she will again draw on the recorded words of Joan Crawford and those who knew her well to paint a rich portrait of the woman and the star Joan Crawford was born Lucille LeSueur in Texas in 1908 She became a chorus girl in silent films before finding her voice in Possessed 1931 with Clark Gable Their affair would continue on and off screen for many years Throughout the thirties Joan continued to earn critical acclaim for her forte of playing career women who never gave up Her Oscar winning film Mildred Pierce in 1945 began the long running feud between Joan and Bette Davis which reached its height with Whatever Happened to Baby Jane in 1962 Joan was married four times including once to Douglas Fairbanks Jr who spoke extensively to Charlotte Chandler for this book Following her death Joan's decision to cut her eldest children out of her will prompted her daughter Christina to write the damning book Mommie Dearest which changed Joan's image forever Charlotte Chandler spent many hours recording interviews with Joan and also those closest to her What emerges is a subtle portrait of a complex woman and a new insight into the legendary actress

Warning Shadows Gary Giddins, 2010-04-19 A brilliantly insightful and witty examination of beloved and little known films directors and stars by one of America's most esteemed critics In his illuminating new work Gary Giddins explores the evolution of film from the first moving pictures and peepshows to the digital era of DVDs and online video streaming New technologies have changed our experience of cinema forever we have peeled away from the crowded theater to be home alone with classic cinema Recounting the technological developments that films have undergone Warning Shadows travels through time and across genres to explore the impact of the industry's most famous classics and forgotten gems Essays such as Houdini Escapes From the Vaults Of the Past Edward G Robinson See and Prestige and Pretension Pride and Prejudice capture the wit and magic of classic cinema Each chapter ranging from the horror films of Hitchcock to the fantastical frames of Disney provides readers with engaging analyses of influential films and the directors and actors who made them possible

Ferocious Ambition Robert Dance, 2023-10-12 Robert Dance's new evaluation of Joan Crawford looks at her entire career and while not ignoring her early years and tempestuous personal life focuses squarely on her achievements as an actress and as a woman who mastered the studio system with a rare combination of grit determination beauty and talent Crawford's remarkable forty five year motion picture career is one of the industry's longest Signing her first contract in 1925 she was crowned an MGM star four years later and by the mid 1930s was the most popular actress in America In the early 1940s Crawford's risky decision to move to Warner Bros was rewarded with an Oscar for Mildred Pierce This triumph launched a series of film noir classics In her fourth decade she teamed with rival Bette Davis in Whatever Happened to Baby Jane proving that Crawford whose career had begun by defining big screen glamour had matured into a superb dramatic actress Her last film was released in 1970 and two years later she made a final television appearance forty seven years after walking through the MGM gate for the first time

Crawford made a successful transition into business during her later years notably in her long association with Pepsi Cola as a board member and the brand's leading ambassador Overlooked in previous biographies has been Crawford's fierce resolve in creating and then maintaining her star persona She let neither her age nor the passing of time block her unrivaled ambition and she continually reimagined herself noting once that for the right part she would play Wally Beery's grandmother But she was always the consummate star and at the time of her death in 1977 she was a motion picture legend and a twentieth century icon

Clarence Brown Gwenda Young,2018-11-23 Greta Garbo proclaimed him as her favorite director Actors actresses and even child stars were so at ease under his direction that they were able to deliver inspired and powerful performances Academy Award nominated director Clarence Brown 1890-1987 worked with some of Hollywood's greatest stars such as Clark Gable Joan Crawford Mickey Rooney Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy Known as the star maker he helped guide the acting career of child sensation Elizabeth Taylor of whom he once said she has a face that is an act of God and discovered Academy Award winning child star Claude Jarman Jr for The Yearling 1946 He directed more than fifty films including Possessed 1931 Anna Karenina 1935 National Velvet 1944 and Intruder in the Dust 1949 winning his audiences over with glamorous star vehicles tales of families communities and slices of Americana as well as hard hitting dramas Although Brown was admired by peers like Jean Renoir Frank Capra and John Ford his illuminating work and contributions to classic cinema are rarely mentioned in the same breath as those of Hollywood's great directors In this first full length account of the life and career of the pioneering filmmaker Gwenda Young discusses Brown's background to show how his hardworking parents and resilient grandparents inspired his entrepreneurial spirit She reveals how the one time engineer and World War I aviator established a thriving car dealership the Brown Motor Car Company in Alabama only to give it all up to follow his dream of making movies He would not only become a brilliant director but also a craftsman who was known for his innovative use of lighting and composition In a career spanning five decades Brown was nominated for five Academy Awards and directed ten different actors in Oscar nominated performances Despite his achievements and influence however Brown has been largely overlooked by film scholars Clarence Brown Hollywood's Forgotten Master explores the forces that shaped a complex man part dreamer part pragmatist who left an indelible mark on cinema

Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library. Each listing includes a brief biography, photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots, vital statistics, a comprehensive filmography, and an informed, entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions, good or bad. It pulsates with all the scandal, glamour, oddity, and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects. Contains over 1,000 photos. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1961. Includes Part 1, Number 1-2. Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals, January-December. The Railroad Trainman, 1918. A Portrait of Joan Joan Crawford, 2017-01-12. One of Hollywood's greatest stars recalls her fabulous life at nine scrubbing floors in a Kansas City school at twenty, motion picture stardom and marriage to Douglas Fairbanks Jr. in 1945, the Academy Award for her sensational comeback triumph in Mildred Pierce, and today a glamorous double life as Hollywood star and corporation executive. Richly illustrated with photographs throughout. After the Silents Michael Slowik, 2014-10-07. Many believe Max Steiner's score for King Kong (1933) was the first important attempt at integrating background music into sound film, but a closer look at the industry's early sound era (1926-1934) reveals a more extended and fascinating story. Viewing more than two hundred films from the period, Michael Slowik launches the first comprehensive study of a long neglected phase in Hollywood's initial development, recasting the history of film sound and its relationship to the Golden Age of film music (1935-1950). Slowik follows filmmakers shifting combinations of sound and image, recapturing the volatility of this era and the variety of film music strategies that were tested, abandoned, and kept. He explores early film music experiments and accompaniment practices in opera, melodrama, musicals, radio, and silent films, and discusses the impact of the advent of synchronized dialogue. He concludes with a reassessment of King Kong and its groundbreaking approach to film music, challenging the film's place and importance in the timeline of sound achievement. A Life of Barbara Stanwyck Victoria Wilson, 2015-11-24. 860 glittering pages. Here is Stanwyck revealed as the quintessential Brooklyn girl whose family was, in fact, of old New England stock; her years in New York as a dancer and

Broadway star her fraught marriage to Frank Fay Broadway genius the adoption of a son embattled from the outset her partnership with Zeppo Marx the unfunny Marx brother who altered the course of Stanwyck's movie career and with her created one of the finest horse breeding farms in the west and her fairytale romance and marriage to the younger Robert Taylor America's most sought after male star Here is the shaping of her career through 1940 with many of Hollywood's most important directors among them Frank Capra Wild Bill William Wellman George Stevens John Ford King Vidor Cecil B DeMille Preston Sturges set against the times the Depression the New Deal the rise of the unions the advent of World War II and a fast changing coming of age motion picture industry And at the heart of the book Stanwyck herself her strengths her fears her frailties losses and desires how she made use of the darkness in her soul transforming herself from shunned outsider into one of Hollywood's most revered screen actresses Fifteen years in the making and written with full access to Stanwyck's family friends colleagues and never before seen letters journals and photographs Wilson's one of a kind biography large thrilling and sensitive Michael Lindsay Hogg Town Country is an epic Hollywood narrative USA TODAY so readable and as direct as its subject The New York Times With 274 photographs many published for the first time
