Sciences The Humanities And The Technological Threat:

The Sciences, the Humanities, and the Technological Threat William Roy Niblett, 1975      The Sciences, the Humanities, and the Technological Threat William Roy Niblett, 1975      Combining Two Cultures Herb Jenkins, Barbara Ferrier, Michael L. Ross, 2004 Research intensive universities have long struggled to reconcile the imperative of specialized learning with the need for a broader more liberal education Combining Two Cultures provides a comprehensive account of a degree program at a distinguished Canadian university McMaster aimed at accomplishing this synthesis This innovative program has stood up well over more than two decades It has a curriculum balanced between arts and sciences and is committed to developing broadly applicable intellectual skills above all those that underlie scholarly inquiry into questions of importance to students and to the society they live in It attempts to harmonize the excitement of exploring a broad range of fields with students needs to meet the requirements for advanced study in professional and academic graduate disciplines This book offers insights into the challenges of planning and establishing a program of this kind Brief personal reflections from many of the program s graduates firsthand observations from current students and instructors accounts of their experiences give a vivid sense of what the program has meant to its participants      Interactions of Technology and Society, 1974      A Will To Learn: Being A Student In An Age Of Uncertainty Barnett, Ronald, 2007-10-01 This book examines the structure of what it is to have a will to learn and offers an idea of student development that challenges current dominant views      Teaching Primary Humanities Russell Grigg, 2014-05-22 As primary subjects are increasingly being taught on an interdisciplinary level Russell Grigg and Sioned Hughes have created an innovative new text Teaching Primary Humanities This new text explores current debate encourages reflection and provides clear guidance on planning teaching and assessing the humanities from the Early Years to Key Stage 2 Through a blend of theory and real life examples Grigg and Hughes demonstrate the contribution that history geography and religious education can make to enhancing children s thinking literacy numeracy and ICT skills Whether you are a trainee or a practitioner this book will develop your knowledge of how young children s understanding of place time and community can be fostered through a play based curriculum It will also benefit teachers of older children looking to encourage more independent learning in their schools About the authors Dr Russell Grigg is Head of the South West Wales Centre of Teacher Education He is a trained primary inspector for England and Wales He has written widely in the field of history and primary education including Wales in the Victorian Age and Becoming an Outstanding Primary Teacher Dr Sioned Hughes is Senior Lecturer in Initial Teacher Training at the South West Wales Centre of Teacher Education She has published many educational materials especially in primary geography Her work on Patagonia was recognised by the Welsh Books Council as the Bestselling Children s Book in 2011      Steel City M.J. Dear, J.J. Drake, L.G. Reeds, 1987-12-15 From its establishment nearly 200 years ago as a village at the centre of an agricultural district Hamilton has grown into one of Canada s biggest industrial centres at the heart of a highly developed regional municipality The story of its changing landscapes both physical and human is presented in the nineteen essays that make up this volume all by geographers associated with Hamilton s McMaster University Change is the essence of the story Each contributor focuses on one aspect of the past present or future landscapes of Hamilton and places it within the context of change in the region The first series of essays explores physical landscapes geology and relief climate soils vegetation and hydrology and shows how human activity has moulded them The second group charts the evolution of human landscapes in the region paying special attention to contemporary Hamilton with its rich and diverse combination of people and cultures and also to the political intrigue that surrounded the introduction of regional government to the area Finally a third series focuses on the functioning of the Hamilton region Within a highly complex system the city and region balance a broad range of often contradictory trends and activities The contributors examine the difficulties facing agriculture in a rapidly urbanizing region the importance of Hamilton in caring for welfare dependent populations the future of steel in Steel City the challenges posed by energy requirements in the region and the hard choices facing policy makers The last two essays discuss the role played by McMaster University in the life of the region and the landscape of Hamilton today a remarkable complex of historical interest great natural beauty and modern city life

Teaching Technology Frank Banks,2013-10-18 Technology is a new and rapidly changing area of the curriculum For experienced teachers in school as well as for students and novices it has involved the need for a whole new range of knowledge and skills in teaching This reader draws together already published articles and newly commissioned material from leading authors in the field to help teachers at all stages of their professional development to understand the principles which need to be considered whatever the detail of the National Curriculum in this subject It looks at the development of technology as a school subject at the ways in which pupils learn and teachers teach it and at its place within the wider contexts of education as a whole and of the society which technological developments help to shape Routledge Library

Editions: Higher Education Various,2021-03-29 The volumes in this set originally published between 1964 and 2002 draw together research by leading academics in the area of higher education and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues The volume examines the concepts of learning teaching student experience and administration in relation to the higher education through the areas of business sociology education reforms government educational policy business and religion whilst also exploring the general principles and practices of higher education in various countries This set will be of particular interest to students and practitioners of education politics and sociology Environmental and Technological

Threats in the Arctic Region Mathieu Landriault,Magali Vullierme,Michael Delaunay,2025-09-09 Arctic subregions have undergone major structural changes in the past few decades Looking past traditional military and geopolitical understandings of these regions this book focuses rather on climate change and on the emergence of the digital economy and its infrastructures as two of the most fundamental challenges for Arctic communities and inhabitants To this end Section I on

Arctic renewed environment focuses on the acceleration of permafrost thaw protection of submarine cables and the importance of an all domain military approach Section II analyses infrastructure challenges linked to this new Arctic environment providing examples within maritime transportation and digital physical infrastructures Finally Section III provides results of research focusing on the emerging geopolitical and strategic threats posed by data routes technological dependencies cryptocurrency mining and disinformation Over the course of the book authors offer practical insights into how to tackle these threats lessons learned best practices and recommendations By bringing together analyses from a range of authors from different interdisciplinary backgrounds the book provides a holistic understanding of these phenomena This volume will be useful for students scholars and researchers of Arctic studies environmental governance and environmental security
