Serving Special Needs Students In The School Library Media Center:

Serving Special Needs Students in the School Library Media Center Margaret Keefe, Robert King, 1995-05-30 School library media specialists are now considered part of the teaching staff and are charged with integrating their library and information skills curriculum with the more general classroom curriculum At the same time more and more special needs students are part of every school and every classroom Thus the media specialist must work effectively with special needs students on a regular basis to develop their information skills and must also serve as a resource to classroom teachers This professional reference offers practical information to school library media specialists on how to serve special needs students and their classroom teachers effectively The first part of the book highlights the teaching role of the media specialist and discusses how and what to teach special needs students The second part views the media specialist as an information expert who must structure the library and its resources for students with special needs The third section treats the media specialist's role as a professional who must collaborate with other teachers

Administering the School Library Media Center Betty J. Morris, 2010-08-16 This is the most comprehensive textbook on school library administration available now updated to include the latest standards and address new technologies This reference text provides a complete instructional overview of the workings of the library media center from the basics of administration budgeting facilities management organization selection of materials and staffing to explanations on how to promote information literacy and the value of digital tools like blogs wikis and podcasting Since the publication of the fourth edition of Administering the School Library Media Center in 2004 many changes have altered the landscape of school library administration the implementation of NCLB legislation and the revision of AASL standards just to mention two The book is divided into 14 chapters each devoted to a major topic in school library media management This latest edition gives media specialists a roadmap for designing a school library that is functional and intellectually stimulating while leading sources provide guidance for further research
