Beyond

Marginality Efraim Sicher,2012-02-01 In a unique study of Anglo Jewish writers in the post war period Dr Sicher traces through their works the story of the rise of the Jewish community from slum poverty to suburban affluence This period is one of crucial social change in Britain At the same time Dr Sicher raises serious questions about the modern writer's cultural and ethnic identity In this process Dr Sicher advances the thesis that under the impetus of the Holocaust the more traditional conflict between Jewish roots and assimilation has been succeeded by a reassessment of identity and morality Dr Sicher's perspective on this particular period of literature is a highly original one and it should provoke creative reconsideration of other contexts and times as well A Career in Writing David John Carter, 1993 This thesis examines the literary career of Judah Waten 1911-1985 in order to focus on a series of issues in Australian cultural history and theory The purpose is not to discover a single key to Waten's writing across the oeuvre but rather to plot the specific occasions of this writing in the context of the structure of a career and the cultural institutions within which it was formed International Who's Who
