very similar problems it would obviously be instructive to compare notes Charlottesville Beer Lee Graves, 2017-01-16
Possibly the region's first craft brewer Thomas Jefferson grew hops and created his own small batch brews at his home at Monticello. His brewing however was only the beginning. Charlie Papazian got his start homebrewing at the University of Virginia and went on to become a founder of the craft brewing movement. The city was not spared the fervent debate over prohibition and the area went dry well in advance of the country in 1907. The Brew Ridge Trail set the standard for regional attractions focused on brewery destinations and sees thousands trek through the beautiful countryside enjoying libations. National award-winning breweries like Devils Backbone, Starr Hill, and Three Notch'd elevated Charlottesville to a center of craft beer. Author Lee Graves offers a history and guide to brewing in scenic Charlottesville Going Native Or Going Naive? Dagmar Wernitznig, 2003. Going Native or Going Naive is a critical analysis of an esoteric Indian movement called white shamanism. This movement originating from the 1980s New Age boom redefines the phenomenon of playing Indian. For white shamans and their followers, Indianness turns into a signifier for cultural cloning. By generating a neo-primitivistic bias, white shamanism utilizes esoteric reconceptualizations of ethnicity and identity. In Going Native or Going Naive, a retrospective view on psychohistorical and sociopolitical implications of Indianness and its noble savage metaphors should clarify the prefix neo within postmodern adaptations of primitivism. The appropriation of an Indian simulacrum by white shamans as well as white shamanic disciplines connotes a subtle yet hazardous form of ethnocentrism. Transcending mere market trends and profit margins, white shamanism epitomizes synthetic cybernetic acculturations. Through investigating the white shamanic matrix, Going Native or Going Naive is intended to make these synthesizing processes more transparent.
