The 7 Keys to Communicating in Japan Haru Yamada, Orlando R. Kelm, David A. Victor, 2017. This book provides a practical set of guidelines for people wishing to communicate professionally in Japan following the model of the similar book by Kelm and Victor on Brazil. Good communication requires more than knowing the language. Haru Yamada, Orlando Kelm, and David Victor, seasoned cross-cultural trainers for businesspeople, provide a guide through Victor's LESCANT model: Language, Environment, Social Organization, Context, Authority, Nonverbal, and Time. Each chapter addresses one of these topics and demonstrates how to evaluate the differences between Japan and North America, presenting examples to help people avoid common communication mistakes. The book is generously peppered with photographs to provide visual examples. The authors complete the book with a case study chapter on a business interaction between Japanese and North Americans. NA. They then gathered comments from various NA professionals working in Japan and Japanese working with US professionals about the interactions in the case, providing helpful observations about the situation. The book straddles some language and communication topics, international relations, and reaches into the business community, a strong academic program at GU, presenting us with a new opportunity to reach a wider audience.

7 Keys to Fulfilling Your Dream George Kingsley Annan, 2010-07. There are two types of Christians you should not be. Do not be like the prodigal son who was not spiritually minded and had no desire to maintain and build relationship with the father but was just interested in his inheritance. You must be a Christian who has the passion to build a relationship with the father and ready to discover principles that will help you fulfill your dreams and possess your inheritance. In this book, you will find some valuable Biblical principles with which you can unlock every barrier that stands between you and the fulfillment of your dreams, aspirations, and vision. You can use these keys to activate the grace of God on your life and receive unction from the Holy Spirit to actualize your dreams, which can become monuments in this life, blessing generations.
