The Seville Communion Arturo Pérez-Reverte, 2004-06-07 A hacker breaks into the pope's computer asking him to save from demolition a 17th century church in Seville. The Vatican dispatches handsome Father Lorenzo Quart who quickly attracts the attention of an aristocratic beauty embroiled in the affair. By the author of The Flanders Panel The Seville Communion Arturo Pérez-Reverte, 1995 Arturo Pérez-Reverte Anne L. Walsh, 2007 The complex narrative technique of one of Spain's most renowned contemporary authors. The writings of Arturo Pérez-Reverte, one of Spain's most renowned contemporary authors, have been described as a minefield. This monograph examines the complexities behind the narrative technique employed in creating such a minefield, including an analysis of the role played by both male and female characters, the relevance of the past as a motif, and aspects of the role of storytelling in creating mystery where none should exist. Both Revertian novels and journalistic writing are seen to be part of an overall game which is played between their author and his readers. Film too forms part of the material reviewed, as though Pérez-Reverte is not a scriptwriter, many films have been based on his novels. The text-centred analysis concludes that the themes of interest in all Revertian output revolve around two main areas: the significance of the past, whether historical, cultural, or literary, and the role of the written word in communicating, in rescuing, and in challenging versions of that past, in order to combat what Pérez-Reverte terms 'dismemory'. ANNE L. WALSH lectures in Hispanic Studies at University College Cork The Painter of Battles Arturo Pérez-Reverte, 2009-03-10 Andrés Faulques, a world-renowned war photographer, has retreated to a tower overlooking the Spanish coast where he paints a vast mural incorporating the indelible images of conflict he's witnessed in his lifetime. One night, an unexpected visitor interrupts his solitude. As Faulques struggles to recall the face of the man, he explains that he was the subject of an iconic photo taken by Faulques in a war zone years ago, a photo that destroyed his life. And why have you come looking for me, asks Faulques. The stranger answers, Because I'm going to kill you. So begins a life-or-death exchange in which Faulques is forced to recall a time when he loved a beautiful woman and risked his life daily for art and testimony. Yet as the tense dialogue between Faulques and his would-be killer continues, the stakes grow even higher. What they are grappling with becomes not just Faulques' fate, but the very nature of love and cruelty itself. The King's Gold Arturo Pérez-Reverte, 2008-08-14 From international bestselling author Arturo Pérez-Reverte comes the fourth adventure of Captain Alatriste in the series that recalls the great adventure novels of Dumas and Scott. The New York Times. Seville, 1626. After serving with honor at the bloody siege of Breda, Captain Alatriste and his protégé, Iñigo Balboa, accept a risky job involving a dozen swordsmen and mercenaries at their command, a dazzling amount of contraband gold, and a heavily guarded Spanish galleon returning from the West Indies. The job offer comes from the king himself, for at stake is nothing less than the Spanish Crown and its dominion over the wealth of the Americas. But for Alatriste, a very personal surprise awaits him on that galleon.
