The gift of life J.M. Vorster, 2021 The concept human life and what it entails have become a prominent idea in current theological ethical discourses especially in the growing Christian reflection on bioethics eco ethics and social justice Contemporary Christian ethicists focus on concepts such as flourishing life happiness and joy and how these deep human desires can be realised and fulfilled in life today amidst perennial surges of racism xenophobia sexism systemic violence and policies and structures which further poverty and other forms of social injustices Christian soteriology and subsequent moral agency grapples with the question How can humans flourish in societies today and how should Christian morality be defined and designed to be instrumental in the current pursuit of happiness joy and hope This publication aims to participate in this modern day discourse by proposing relevant theological perspectives on the concept of life and in particular its relevance for Christians living in this age and in an environment that poses major challenges to public morality and the common good In conjunction with the emerging theological interest in the concept of life this project is a modest attempt to take part in the advancement of an ethic of life for today under the rubric of an ethic of flourishing personhood The point of departure is the biblical concept of the gift of life and what this gift entails for understanding human life personhood and moral agency today The line of reasoning in this book delineates the broad concept ethic of life and the biblical concept gift of life and draws the line towards an ethic of flourishing personhood The central theoretical argument of the study is that reformed theology can give direction to the contemporary theological search for meaning and purpose of human life and offer answers to the questions on life facing humanity today especially by pursuing the idea of flourishing personhood

Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss, William J. Doherty, Ralph LaRossa, Walter R. Schumm, Suzanne K. Steinmetz, 1993-03-31 Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i.e. sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production
