was a high school dropout who became one of the world's greatest fossil hunters that the great British scientist Michael Faraday was the son of a blacksmith and had very little formal education that Gregor Mendel had time to study inherited traits in garden peas because he failed the test to qualify as a high school science teacher This is just a small sampling of the many surprises you'll find in this enlightening survey of the mavericks misfits and unschooled investigators who have been responsible for some of the greatest scientific discoveries in history It Doesn't Take a Rocket Scientist explains the achievements of each of these accomplished amateurs describes how they approached their investigations and discusses the impact of their discoveries In these amazing and inspiring stories you'll learn about Grote Reber and the birth of radio astronomy Arthur C Clarke's vision of communication satellites Joseph Priestley and the discovery of oxygen Felix d Herelle's pinpointing of bacteriophages killers of bacteria Thomas Jefferson and the science of archaeology You'll also discover which fields of science still offer great opportunities for modern amateurs eager to make a name for themselves After all it doesn't take a rocket scientist

Space Forces Fred Scharmen, 2021-11-02 The radical history of space exploration from the Russian Cosmists to Elon Musk Many societies have imagined going to live in space What they want to do once they get up there whether conquering the unknown establishing space colonies privatising the moon's resources reveals more than expected In this fascinating radical history of space exploration Fred Scharmen shows that often science and fiction have combined in the imagined dreams of life in outer space but these visions have real implications for life back on earth For the Russian Cosmists of the 1890s space was a place to pursue human perfection away from the Earth For others such as Wernher Von Braun it was an engineering task that combined in the Space Race the Cold War and during World War II with destructive geopolitics Arthur C Clark in his speculative books offered an alternative vision of wonder that is indifferent to human interaction Meanwhile NASA planned and managed the space station like an earthbound corporation Today the market has arrived into outer space and exploration is the plaything of superrich technology billionaires who plan to privatise the mineral wealth for themselves Are other worlds really possible Bringing these figures and ideas together reveals a completely different story of our relationship with outer space as well as the dangers of our current direction of extractive capitalism and colonisation
