Sartre and Magic Daniel O'Shiel,2019-06-27 Jean Paul Sartre s technical and multifaceted concept of magic is central for understanding crucial elements of his early philosophy 1936 1943 not least his conception of the ego emotion the imaginary and value Daniel O Shiel follows the thread of magic throughout Sartre s early philosophical work Firstly Sartre s work on the ego 1936 shows a personal reflective form of consciousness that is magically hypostasized onto the pre reflective level Secondly emotion 1938 is inherently magical for Sartre because emotive qualities come to inhere in objects and thereby transform a world of pragmatism into one of captivation Thirdly analyses of The Imaginary 1940 reveal that anything we imagine is a spontaneous creation of consciousness that has the power to enchant and immerse us even to the point of images holding sway over us Culminating with Sartre s ontological system of Being and Nothingness 1943 O Shiel argues that Sartre does not do away with the concept but in fact provides ontological roots for it This is most evident in Sartre s analyses of value possession and language A second part shows how such Sartrean magic is highly relevant for a number of concrete case studies the arts advertising racism and stupidity and certain instances of psychopathology O Shiel shows that Sartre s magical being is important for any contemporary philosophical anthropology because it is essentially at work at the heart of many of our most significant experiences both creative and damaging

Magic Chants for Beginners Harry Eilenstein,2021-05-31 Spell chants have a very long tradition already in the Egyptian Book of the Dead some texts are praised as spells that can be sung well Moreover in many traditions magicians are not called speakers but singers It is obviously worthwhile to take a closer look at the nature of singing in contrast to the spoken word in magic Singing and speaking are the expression of different chakras and they also have a different effect Therefore there are situations in which a magic chant is the appropriate thing to do and situations in which a spoken spell is the right thing to do or going into silence These reflections are complemented by about 90 examples of spell chants from various cultures
