Tantra, Magic, and Vernacular Religions in Monsoon Asia Andrea Acri, Paolo E. Rosati, 2022-11-03 This book explores the cross and trans cultural dialectic between Tantra and intersecting magical and shamanic practices associated with vernacular religions across Monsoon Asia With a chronological frame going from the mediaeval Indic period up to the present a wide geographical framework and through the dialogue between various disciplines it presents a coherent enquiry shedding light on practices and practitioners that have been frequently alienated in the elitist discourse of mainstream Indic religions and equally overlooked by modern scholarship The book addresses three desiderata in the field of Tantric Studies it fills a gap in the historical modelling of Tantra it extends the geographical parameters of Tantra to the vast yet culturally interlinked socio geographical construct of Monsoon Asia it explores Tantra as an interface between the Sanskritic elite and the folk the vernacular the magical and the shamanic thereby revisiting the intellectual and historically fallacious divide between cosmopolitan Sanskritic and vernacular local The book offers a highly innovative contribution to the field of Tantric Studies and more generally South and Southeast Asian religions by breaking traditional disciplinary boundaries Its variety of disciplinary approaches makes it attractive to both the textual diachronic and ethnographic synchronic dimensions It will be of interest to specialist and non specialist academic readers including scholars and students of South Asian religions mainly Hinduism and Buddhism Tantric traditions and Southeast Asian religions as well as Asian and global folk religion shamanism and magic

Capitalism Magic Thailand Peter A

Jackson,2021-12-13 By studying intersections among new cults of wealth ritually empowered amulets and professional spirit mediumship which have emerged together in Thailand's dynamic religious field in recent decades Capitalism Magic Thailand explores the conditions under which global modernity produces new varieties of enchantment Bruno Latour's account of modernity as a condition fractured between rationalizing ideology and hybridizing practice is expanded to explain the apparent paradox of new forms of magical ritual emerging alongside religious fundamentalism across a wide range of Asian societies In Thailand novel and increasingly popular varieties of ritual now form a symbolic complex in which originally distinct cults centred on Indian deities Chinese gods and Thai religious and royal figures have merged in commercial spaces and media sites to sacralize the market and wealth production Emerging within popular culture this complex of cults of wealth amulets and spirit mediumship is supported by all levels of Thai society including those at the acme of economic and political power New theoretical frameworks are presented in analyses that challenge the view that magic is a residue of premodernity placing the dramatic transformations of cultic ritual centre stage in modern Thai history It is concluded that modern enchantment arises at the confluence of three processes neoliberal capitalism's production of occult economies the auraticizing effects of technologies of mass mediatization and the performative force of ritual in religious fields where practice takes precedence over doctrine

The Dark World of Pakistani Black Magic Insar Haq,2024-11-01 A fascinating and often surprising journey into the belief and practice of magic in Pakistan exploring the country's myths legends and folklore The supernatural and the religious intertwine to produce a unique cultural landscape where the holy and the superstitious combine inextricably and practitioners of both white and black magic gain legitimacy and status from the incorporation of Quranic elements in their rituals from faith healing and protection to harmful sorcery Far from an arcane relic of times long past the practice of magic is ubiquitous in Pakistan today and amongst its diaspora across the globe constantly changing and adapting to new environments and influences Neither is the popularity of magic limited to the impoverished or illiterate belief is widespread regardless of status and education with a resurgence in interest from younger people perhaps disillusioned with modern society and organised religion and seeking a return to a more natural way of life The risks of exploitation and abuse from unprincipled charlatans are commonplace especially since they are promoted by the media and unregulated by law but genuine religiously legitimate practitioners also exist and their help is sought by millions suggesting a deep seated human need for connection to the supernatural

Power, Protection and Magic in Thailand Craig J. Reynolds, 2019-10-22 This biographical study of an unusual southern policeman explores the relationship between religion and power in Thailand during the early twentieth century when parts of the country were remote and banditry was rife Khun Phan 1898 2006 known as Lion Lawman sometimes used rather too much lethal force in carrying out his orders He was the most famous graduate of a monastic academy in the mid south whose senior teachers imparted occult knowledge favoured by fighters on both sides of the law Khun Phan imbibed this knowledge to confront the risks and uncertainty that lay ahead and bolster his confidence and self reliance for his struggle with adversaries Against the background of national events the story is rooted in the mid south where the policeman was born and died Based on a wide range of works in Thai language on field trips to the region and on interviews with local and regional scholars as well as the policeman s descendants this generously illustrated book accompanied by short video clips brings to life the distinctive environment of the lakes district on the Malay Peninsula

Understanding Witchcraft and Sorcery in Southeast Asia C. W. Watson, R. F. Ellen, 1993-01-01 Witchcraft holds a perennial fascination for scholars and the public at large In Southeast Asia malign magic and sorcery are part of the routine experience of villagers and urban dwellers alike and stories appearing in the press from time to time bear witness to a persisting public concern The essays presented in this volume describe what people believe and what actions result from those beliefs Not surprisingly given the range and variety of cultures considerable differences exist in the region Among some cultures in Thailand and Indonesia for example sorcerers are said to possess spirits that empower them to cause illness and misfortune Elsewhere in Malaysia and Sumatra the power of the dukun derives from the accumulation of arcane knowledge and mystical practice Contributors describe the witches and sorcerers they have met and suggest both how their societies look upon them and how we in turn should regard them Understanding Witchcraft and Sorcery in Southeast Asia will appeal to scholars and students of social anthropology and comparative religion Its substantial contribution to theoretical and comparative issues in a Southeast Asian context provides a fresh perspective on a stimulating topic

The MAGIC background of Pearl Harbor United States. Department of Defense, 1978

Maidens, Magic and Martyrs in Early Christianity Jan N. Bremmer, 2017-07-13 In this work Jan N Bremmer aims to bring together the worlds of early Christianity and those of ancient history and classical literature worlds that still all too rarely interlock Contextualising the life and literature of the early Christians in their Greco Roman environment he focusses on four areas A first section looks at more general aspects of early Christianity the name of the Christians their religious and social capital prophecy and the place of widows and upper class women in the Christian movement Second the chronology and place of composition of the early apocryphal Acts of the Apostles and Pseudo Clementines are newly determined by paying close attention to their doctrinal contents but also innovatively to their onomastics and social vocabulary The author also analyses the frequent use of magic in the Acts and explains the prominence of women by comparing the Acts to the Greek novel Third an investigation into the theme of the tours of hell suggests a new chronological order shows that the Christian tours were indebted to both Greek and Jewish models and illustrates that in the course of time the genre dropped a large part of its Jewish heritage The fourth and final section concentrates on the most famous and intriguing report of an ancient martyrdom the Passion of Perpetua It pays special attention to the motivation and visions of Perpetua which are analyzed not by taking recourse to modern theories such as psychoanalysis but by looking to the world in which Perpetua lived both Christian and pagan It is only by seeing the early Christians in their ancient world that we might begin to understand them and their emerging communities Publisher s description
