Genosko,2002-01-04 Gary Genosko s timely study traces McLuhan s influence on the work of Jean Baudrillard arguing that McLuhan s ideas have been far more influential than hitherto imagined in the development of postmodern theory Genosko explores how McLuhan s ideas persist and are distorted through Baudrillard s work He argues that it is through Baudrillard s influence that McLuhanism has had its greatest impact on contemporary cultural thought and practice Mc Luhan and Baudrillard Gary Genosko,1999 Marshall McLuhan: Theoretical elaborations Gary Genosko,2005 This collection contains key critical essays and assessments of the writings of Canadian communications thinker Marshall McLuhan selected from the voluminous output of the past forty years McLuhan s famous aphorisms and uncanny ability to sense megatrends are once again in circulation across and beyond the disciplines Since his untimely death in 1980 McLuhan s ideas have been rediscovered and redeployed with urgency in the age of information and cybernation Together the three volumes organise and present some forty years of indispensable critical works for readers and researchers of the McLuhan legacy The set includes critical introductions to each section by the editor Forthcoming titles in this series include Walter Benjamin 0 415 32533 1 December 2004 3 vols Theodor Adorno 0 415 30464 4 April 2005 4 vols and Jean Francois Lyotard 0 415 33819 0 2005 3 vols McLuhan: A Guide for the Perplexed W. Terrence Gordon,2010-02-25 Marshall McLuhan was dubbed a media guru when he came to prominence in the 1960s The Woodstock generation found him cool their parents found him perplexing By 1963 McLuhan was Director of the Centre for Culture and Technology at the University of Toronto and would be a public intellectual on the international stage for more than a decade then linked forever to his two best known coinages the global village and the medium is the message Taken as a whole McLuhan s writings reveal a profound coherence and illuminate his unifying vision for the study of language literature and culture grounded in the broad understanding of any medium or technology as an extension of the human body McLuhan A Guide for the Perplexed is a close reading of all of his work with a focus on tracing the systematic development of his thought The overriding objective is to clarify all of McLuhan s thinking to consolidate it in a fashion which prevents misreading and to open the way to advancing his own program ensuring that the world does not sleepwalk into the twenty first century with nineteenth century perceptions Baudrillard and the Media William Merrin,2005 Baudrillard and the Media is the first in depth critical study of Jean Baudrillard s media theory Rejecting the common positioning of Baudrillard within the discipline as a postmodernist it argues instead for the necessity of a fuller reading of his ideas and critical project Merrin offers an overview and evaluation of his key arguments and themes focusing especially upon the organising principle of his work his theory of symbolic exchange and critique of the semiotic and of simulation Upon this basis the book also resituates Baudrillard within media theory developing an original critical re reading of his relationship with McLuhanism and arguing for the significance instead of hitherto neglected influences such as Boorstin Emphasizing his critical value and contemporary relevance Baudrillard and the Media also provides the most detailed exploration yet of Baudrillard's theory of the non event considering its applicability through case studies of his controversial analyses of the Gulf War of 9 11 and the Afghan and Iraq Wars and of his own appearance in the film The Matrix Considering also Baudrillard's discussion of cinema his theory and personal practice of photography and his critique of new media the book concludes with an evaluation of his place within media and communication studies and an argument for his importance for this field Students and scholars of the media and media theory in particular will welcome this clear and comprehensive study

Baudrillard's Challenge Victoria Grace, 2002-01-04 This controversial book is the first systematic feminist reading of the work of Jean Baudrillard one of the most pivotal figures in contemporary cultural theory and is essential reading for students of feminist theory sociology and cultural theory Drawing on the full range of Baudrillard's writings the author engages in a debate with the work of Luce Irigaray Judith Butler and Rosi Braidotti on identity power and desire the feminist concern with difference as an emancipatory construct writings on transgenderism and the performance of gender feminist concerns about the objectification of women Through this critical engagement Grace reveals some of the limitations of some contemporary feminist theorising around gender and identity patriarchy and power and in so doing offers a way forward for contemporary feminist thought the agenda for cultural and social analysis in Canada and remain important to contemporary intellectual formations Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and Anthony Wilden in communications theory Northrop Frye in literary studies George Grant and Harold Innis in a left nationalist tradition of critical political economy Fernand Dumont and Paul mile Borduas in Quebecois national and political culture and Harold Cardinal in native studies The volume s second section showcases work in which contemporary authors address Canada s problematic and incomplete nationalism race difference and multiculturalism and modernity and contemporary culture The final section includes excerpts from federal policy documents that are especially important to Canadians conceptions of their social political and cultural circumstances The reader opens with a foreword by Fredric Jameson and concludes with an afterword in which the Quebecois scholar Yves Laberge explores the differences between English Canadian cultural studies and the prevailing forms of cultural analysis in francophone Canada Contributors Ian Angus Himani Bannerji Jody Berland Paul mile Borduas Harold Cardinal Maurice Charland Stephen Crocker Ioan Davies Fernand Dumont Kristina Fagan Gail Faurschou Len Findlay Northrop Frye George Grant Rick Gruneau Harold Innis Fredric Jameson Yves Laberge Jocelyn L tourneau Eva Mackey Lee Maracle Marshall McLuhan Katharyne Mitchell Sourayan Mookerjea Kevin Pask Rob Shields Will Straw Imre Szeman Serra Tinic David Whitson Tony Wilden div Baudrillard, Youth, and American Film Kip Kline, 2016-05-26 Baudrillard Youth and American Film examines the portrayal of youth in American cinema with Jean Baudrillard s radical social theory and philosophical system Kline uses Baudrillard s corpus to analyze the troubling effects of the portrayal of youth in American teen films namely its contribution to discursive violence against young people which holds such a prominent place in many adult controlled modern institutions like schools This kind of violence has multiple iterations including the inability to imagine youth as meaningful political actors the insistence on taking teenagers to be morally impoverished and the propensity for viewing young people as thoroughly heteronomous While there are certainly pockets of exception violent discourses often animate institutional disregard for youth Kline promotes Baudrillard s fatal theory as a way for critical educators philosophers sociologists and other concerned pedagogues to argue for an alteration in the way that youth is portrayed in American films and to discourage the negative discourse that have colonized conceptions and treatment of young people
