Miracle Susan Smith, 2020-09-10 More Than a Miracle is one woman's journey through life challenges such as being a divorced single working mother of three young boys, surviving and coping with violent rape and facing life-death struggles with major illnesses. Susan Smith experienced a true miracle that would shape her determination to survive chemotherapy, radiation, a stem cell transplant for non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, major heart failure, kidney failure, and complicated back surgery. This book is her story of survival and inspiration. One night a voice resounded through her saying, "You have work to do." She didn't know what it meant, except it had delivered her from a death sentence. As Susan's life continued, she wondered if the work was simply to survive. But as time went on, she realized that her story inspired many people who told her she should write a book. This book would be the catalyst for the work she needed to do to give people hope and inspiration. Throughout the book, Susan describes many things she relied on for survival: Things like positive attitude, common sense, humor, and developing creativity contributed to her determination to survive and tell her story. Ebony, 2007-06 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Mahanta, 2025-04-28 This volume explores and critically examines how disability is communicated to and comprehended by individuals and societies, focussing on the shaping of these narratives within diverse disciplinary environments and their interrelation with institutions like academia. It delves into the intersection between disability and several new areas of study such as translation studies, citizenship, inclusive design, and accessibility, thereby broadening the scope of the discipline of disability studies. The volume highlights how disability embodiment shapes narrative structure and challenges deeply entrenched ableist stratifications, hegemonies, and hierarchies that prevail in the humanities and social sciences. It examines the theoretical, methodological, and ethical narratives of human embodiment and disability by bringing together papers from various parts of the globe from multiple disciplinary perspectives, focusing on diverse time segments and dealing with different kinds of disability. Read together, the contributions to this volume reevaluate how disabled body-minds have been historically devalued down the ages, suggesting new ways of understanding, rethinking this oppression and marginalization. This anthology is a valuable resource for students and researchers in cultural and critical disability studies. New York
